Top 30 Signs You've Been In FLSC Way Too Long:

By Bob Schmidt, Author of "Skiing: You Got A Problem With That???"

30. You've been declared legally colorblind because you can only recognize three colors: green, blue and black.
29. "99 Bottles of Beer on the Wall" is a one evening allotment for a "social drinker".
28. To "spice up" your sex lives, you attempt to convince your significant other that it would be fun to try the "chair lift" position.
27. Nobody has seen you since your cable company added both "The Skiing Channel" and "The Drinking Channel".
26. Descartes was wrong: I DRINK, therefore I am.
25. The Smithsonian has contacted you about buying your lift ticket collection.
24. Arranging for a group to go to "Jay's" is your version of assembling a "think tank".
23. You spot your significant other on a "Jerry Springer" show entitled, "My Lover Uses Ski Equipment During Sex".
22. While playing "Trivial Pursuit", you proudly proclaim that the three greatest comedy teams of the 20th Century are Laurel and Hardy, Abbott and Costello and Danzeisen and Quigley.
21. You can only measure liquids by the can, the bottle or the keg.
20. "Alcoholics Anonymous" meetings are for the confused and misinformed.
19. The American Psychiatric Association has labeled you a "test case" due to your "Suzy Chapstick" fixation.
18. You suffer from "separation anxiety" when you leave your skis home.
17. When YOU sing the National Anthem, it always begins "Here's to good friends, tonight is kinda special"
16. Beer and Frosted Flakes: They, re GRRRRRRREAT!
15. You've adopted a "don't ask, don't tell" policy regarding South Jersey Ski Club membership.
14. Your Master's Thesis was entitled "Prohibition: Mankind's Greatest Tragedy".
13. Playboy is LYING when it claims it doesn't have a "Women of Fall Line" issue.
12. Hanes and Fruit of the Loom stopped taking your phone calls because they can't sell you polypropylene underwear.
11. Your coworkers make fun of your "Picabo Street" lunch box.
10. You buy "all weather, ultra comfortable" rollerblades because being able to sleep, shower, work and have sex with them ON is a real time saver.
9. The National Sobriety League is the "Anti-Christ".
8. Your kid is kicked out of preschool because the teachers won't tolerate the "training skis".
7. Between "Ted" and "Tom" Sommers, you've always known that it's TED who's the "EVIL" twin.
6. You, re getting daily visits by the "Welcome Wagon" from the Betty Ford Center.
5. After meeting a promising new "significant other", you ask if you can have a "Demo Weekend".
4. You sue McDonald's for fraud because, without beer, it's not REALLY a "Happy Meal".
3. To help deal with your manic depression when the ski season ends, you give seminars to postal workers on getting the "most bang" from hostage situations.
2. You, re dumbfounded that your tour of Africa doesn't include a "Wings" Safari AND THE NUMBER ONE SIGN THAT YOU'VE BEEN IN FALL LINE SKI CLUB WAY TOO LONG:
1. You can remember a party that Dennis Halterman wasn't at.

TED'S TOPICS

Well, we haven't even had trip one yet, but the season is off to an incredible start! September's SnoBall was the most successful ever, whether you're talking about the number of tickets sold, the total prize value, the number of participants or just how much fun it was.

This SnoBall was a fitting one for the last the millenium, and it wouldn't have been possible without the many volunteers who made it happen behind the scenes. The hard work of board members Janice Lynch, Barb Vergagni, and Nona Luce was pretty obvious: if you tried to talk to any of them the night of the SnoBall, you'd be lucky to get a few words in before they were pulled-away to do their next task.

But pull back the curtain a bit further and you'd see none other than Russ Consentino pulling the levers that really make the SnoBall what it is today.

Russ is the guy who's ultimately responsible for all those booths you see and most of the prize donations. He's already started working on next year's SnoBall, sending out piles of letters to line up sponsors for next year's event.

Kudos and thanks to Russ and all the other volunteers who made this the Millenium's Best SnoBall!

Speaking of Millenium's best, this ski season is off to an incredible start. Just about every trip that's opened has already sold out, and last month the Stowe Demo Weekend trip sold out on the first night!

This really isn't surprising because it's a great trip, but it is a new addition to a calendar that's one of our biggest so far. With this kind of response, it'll most likely be a permanent addition to the calendar.

If this is any indication (and it looks like it is), the remaining weekend trips are going to go fast, so if you're interested in going, you'd better get to the meeting early on the opening night.

Great season, eh? Well, next year we're going to do it all over again, and if you're one who's good at thinking up places to go, getting quotes, and/or coordinating trips, we could use your expertise. Both our Winter and Summer trip committees are starting to plan the next season, so now's the time to get involved. If you're interested, stop by the next meeting and talk to Kathie Read about the winter Committee or Betty Demers about the summer committee. It's a lot of fun and your chance to contribute to a worthy cause...fun!

MONT TREMBLANT, Canada

by Dennis Halterman, trip coordinator

For the eighth year in a row Fall Line will be taking a major ski trip to the fabulous Mt. Tremblant area, from January 9th through 15th, 2000. Without exception these trips have been overwhelming successes.

This year promises to be even better as Tremblant continues to expand its facilities, both on the mountain and in its social areas. Over the past seven years over $500 million has been invested, launching Tremblant into the realm of world class resort villages.

FOR ONLY $1035, YOU GET THE FOLLOWING:

- Round trip air transportation between Philly and Montreal.
- Bus transfers between Montreal and Tremblant
- Five night's slopeside lodging
- Six hearty breakfasts and six gourmet dinners.
- Five days of skiing (lifts included)
- 14 hours of expert ski instruction
- Free access to the Aqua Club (new this year)
- Additional Fall Line party at Tremblant!
- Souvenir and limited-edition sweater.

There's lots of après-ski activity too: Tremblant is a party town that offers a wide variety of restaurants and entertainment spots. Our six dinners will be at six different restaurants, including one at the mountaintop restaurant La Legende. Breakfast will also be at several different restaurants.

This year we'll be lodging at the Kandahar condos at the foot of the mountain, offering deluxe units with two bathrooms and a full kitchen in a bright alpine atmosphere. They are located in the heart of the resort village with direct access to the slopes and can comfortably accommodate four people.

Prior year Fall Line trip surveys ranked Tremblant #1 for nightlife, and either #1 or #2 in quality of the mountain, skiing conditions, proximity to mountain, and quality of lodging. You don't want to miss all of this!

No matter what level of skier you are, you'll come back from the trip with new skills that you will be able to use the rest of the ski season. Beginner skiers will be skiing black diamonds by the end of the ski week and experts will have enhanced their skills to the max. It's amazing to see the progress that Fall Line skiers who've been to Tremblant have made.

This year's trip will be led by the dynamic Tremblant veteran duo of Jeff Carter and Wendy Crabtree, who promise to double your pleasure on what may be the best ski trip of your life. Yours truly will also be attending and challenging all of you to keep up the pace!

WINTER TRIP COMMITTEE NOTICE

by Kathie Read

The Winter Trip Committee will be meeting in October to start planning the trip schedule for the 2000-2001 season. If you are interested in becoming a member of the Winter Trip Committee, please call Kathie Read at 856-795-0882 (work), 856-694-5328 (home) or e-mail kgreen@bellatlantic.net for details.

SUMMER TRIP COMMITTEE FORMING

by Betty Demers

The Summer trip committee will be forming in October to plan next summer's activities. The first meeting will be held in mid-October; the exact date and location are TBA at this time. If you are interested in participating, have any trip ideas or would like to lead a summer trip next year, please contact Betty Demers at 215-772-1369 or Dave Friedman at 215-342-0189.

DID SOMEBODY SAY MEETINGS?

GENERAL MEETINGS are held the first and third Tuesday of each month at the Garden Room of the Day's Inn, Route 73 and Fellowship Road, Mt. Laurel, NJ. Meetings are from 8:30 until 11:00 pm for trip sign-ups, announcements, information and socializing. Please bring a friend, for newcomers are always welcome.

BOARD MEETINGS are held the second and fourth Tuesday each month, where the club's formal business is discussed and enacted. Members are welcome to attend. If you have something you would like to discuss, just ask any board member and it will be put on the next meetings agenda. Meetings are held from 8:00 to 11:00 pm, and locations rotate amongst board members' houses, so ask any board member for the next meeting location.

WINTER TRIP COMMITTEE MEETINGS are conducted by Kathie Read, board member and Winter Trip Committee Chairperson, and occur monthly throughout the entire year. October begins the process for the following season. Please see Kathie if you are interested in attending or participating.

FALL LINE PEOPLE

by Harry Gould

Well, the summer season may be over but the matrimonial season just won't quit. First the singles world lost Stacey Cooke in June to Bob "Hound" Kelly) and then Pam Bigelow in August (to Dennis O'Neill). But that was just Round One. Now comes Round Two.

In about a week, "Bad" Brad Land of Cherry Hill will send profound shock waves throughout Western Civilization when he slips a ring around the finger of Marie Eagan of Clementon. And in December, Fall Line ex-president Bob Suravage of Sicklerville will be exchanging wedding vows with Kathy Conover, a Fall Liner originally from Easton, Pa., who recently moved to Maple Shade. Brad and Marie, who have been an item for a while, will tie the knot on Oct. 15 at the Lakeside Manor in Gibbsboro. Family members and special friends will be in attendance for the wedding and reception at the Manor. The two will set up house in Clementon.

Bob and Kathy, who first met at Steve Archibald's 1997-98 New Year's party, will walk down the matrimonial aisle on Dec. 4 surrounded by invited guests and family members at the private Medford residence of a friend. The couple intends to move into a newly purchased house in Medford.

CLEARED FOR TAKEOFF... Remember the TV ad about the guy who liked the product so much that he "bought the company"? It brings to mind Brad and Robyn Zacharia, who evidently liked their flight-school experience so much that they—you guessed it—BOUGHT THE COMPANY.

That's right. Fall Line's very own membership chairman and his co-chair wife are now the sole owners of Via Air Flight School—the very same Northeast Philadelphia Airport facility whose instructors began teaching Brad how to fly his four-passenger Piper Cherokee some six years ago. Brad and Robyn's outright purchase of the school became official on Aug. 27, capping a dream both have nurtured for years.

Brad, who is instrument-rated and has 300 flying hours under his belt, says he'll be more hands-on than the previous owner, who moved to Florida and ran the business a bit too casually. "He was losing money," Brad explained. "He didn't realize how much he was losing. It was getting out of hand." Brad will have the title of president while Robyn will be the company's secretary.

The new ownership team already has plenty of ideas for tightening up the finances and promoting the business. The couple is seeking to expand the amount of physical space at the facility as well as add two additional aircraft and more flight trainers (there are now four). They also want to make the school better known as a testing center for pilots seeking written certifications, an area neglected up until now. And Brad, Fall Line's consummate webmaster, has already put the new franchise up on the World Wide Web: <http://www.flyviaair.net>.

Oh, and Brad will still patch up your leaky shingles too. "I'm not giving that up," he says of his roofing business. "There's too much money in it."

BABIES ON BOARD... Fall Line People officially welcomes Maggie Ann Clapp, the latest addition to the Clapp Family Singers (Franklin, Christine and 22-month-old Franklin Jr.). Maggie popped into the world on Aug. 28 weighing 7 lbs., 5 inches. "She came out nice 'n' easy," her dad reports proudly. Since birth, he adds, Maggie has been "gaining about 4 pounds every day" (a habit she's sure to outgrow by the time she's, say, 17).

And belated congratulations to Dwight and Patricia Tamaki, who brought Connor Michael Tamaki into the world on July 21. According to Dwight and Patricia: "He came into the world a little early at 36 weeks and although he was only 5 lbs., he is healthy and doing well. We are slowly working into a whole new routine and although we won't always be at the meetings, we hope to stay in contact with as many of our skiing and partying friends from Fall Line as possible."

If you have news you'd like to share with other Fall Liners, contact Harry Gould at 215-922-0244 or email him at gouldh@phillynews.com. Space is limited and the appropriateness of any item received will be the sole discretion of the newsletter editors.

D&B 8-BALL POOL TOURNAMENT

by Bob Miller

The Fall Line Ski Club is having its Second Annual Eight Ball Pool Tournament at Dave and Buster's on November 12, 1999 at 8:00 PM. D&B is located at 325 Delaware Avenue, under the Ben Franklin Bridge.

We will have tables available for the less competitive players who enjoy just playing the game. For the pool sharks in the Club we will have tables set up to see who's the best, with the winning team enjoying the bragging rights until next year's event. Two person teams will be chosen by the luck of the draw and the event will follow a double-elimination format.

The cost is $30.00 for food and pool, or $15.00 for pool only. There will be a cash bar. Show up on November 12 to find out. Please call Bob Miller if you have any questions (H) 856 232-8366, (W) 215 209-4496.

RECAP: JOHN STEEL'S BRUNCH AND SKATE

By Sally Hiller

On a day of perfect weather, in the quiet, sleepy town of Audubon, NJ, approximately 30 Fall Liners shattered the Sunday silence on Aug. 29, converging on John Steel's backyard for brunch followed by rollerblading.

John was the ever-attentive host and, in a rare instance, turned over his spatula to two very capable cooks – Jack Steel (his son) and Paul Rodig. The chefs extraordinaire served up French toast, scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage, muffins, juice, coffee and Bloody Marys – what a gastronomic delight!! The brunch provided an opportunity for those that didn't skate to come out and socialize.

After our appetites were more than satisfied, two groups set out on a long and shorter skate. Everyone of course was required to wear protective gear and helmets. Paul Rodig was not only a great cook but proved to be a fearless leader for the beginner skaters like Sharon Benner and myself. He took us over hill and dale and returned with the same number of skaters. Bravo, Paul!

The 10-to 12-mile skate attracted the hardy, more experienced skaters led by Glen Mace, with Tim and Angela, Don Giordano, Steve Wright, Mrs. Chris Nast, Sue Babe Aitken, Kim and Ed Piasecki, Ron Romanik, Cindy Irwin and her sister Patti, Fran Harrelson and Craig Dombrosky and others. Angela found a short cut; when Sue Babe set out to look for her, she needed her own search party.

Arriving back at John's, the skaters, in true Fall Line fashion, continued to socialize and finish the beer. We had beautiful weather, a comfortable backyard, fun people and a great host and hostess. Thank you so much, John and Jane, for giving us a great day!

FALL LINE BUSINESS DIRECTORY

by Harry Gould

Calling all contractors, consultants, attorneys, health professionals, accountants, artists or other independent professionals: The first-ever Fall Line Business Services Directory is coming your way.

If you have a service or product to sell and you'd like other Fall Liners to know more about your business, the Fall Line Business Services Directory is designed just for you. In December, the club will launch the first edition of the directory, which will be distributed free of charge as a service to the membership. The club will publish a new edition at least once a year.

The directory will be an attractive, pamphlet-sized bound booklet with three business-card sized ads per page. We'll scan in your business card directly or, if you'd prefer, we'll design a simple 3.5"-by-2" ad. Whichever you choose, the cost will be the same: $20 per ad to cover production and mailing expenses.

The directory has already captured the imagination of Fall Liners who want to get in on a good thing. Within days of a recent e-mail publicity campaign, nearly a dozen members committed themselves to purchasing an ad. Two members actually paid for their ads at the last regular meeting.

What about you?

If you'd like to see a prototype of the directory, stop by the membership table at the next general meeting. Just ask Brad Zacharia to let you have a look.

If you're already sold on the idea, send a $20 check for each business card (along with the card itself) to Dave Friedman, Fall Line Ski Club, 5954 Tabor Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19120, or come to the next Fall Line meeting and give your check to Dave in person. (Dave is a Fall Line board member; call him at 215-342-0189). Make your check payable to "Fall Line Ski Club" and indicate "Business Directory" in the memo field.

To discuss any publication details or to arrange a custom-designed ad, call Kathie Read Lizotte (609-694-5328) or Harry Gould (215-922-0244). Or come to a regular Fall Line meeting and stop by the membership table.

The deadline is Nov. 10. Don't miss out on a terrific business opportunity.

10/23 ROAD RALLY CANCELLED!

By John Kennedy

With apologies to the road rally fans, I must cancel the 10/23 Road Rally. Unforeseen circumstances have restricted the time I need to actually plot (i.e., drive) the route. I'm sorry for any inconvenience this may cause. Anyone who's already signed-up will receive a full refund.

Thanks for your understanding.
