Killington, Vermont

LET'S PLAY 20 err, make that 10 QUESTIONS January 20-22, 2006

- 1) Who is perennially the first eastern ski area to open? (late October or early November)
- 2) Who is always the last eastern ski area to close? (late May or early June)
- 3) Who has a season that typically lasts 190 days or more? (That is over 6 months)
- 4) Who has 200 trails?
- 5) Who has 7 interconnected mountains?
- 6) Who has a footprint over 11 miles long?
- 7) Who has over 33 lifts?
- 8) Who in the east has over 3000 vertical feet?
- 9) Who has snowmaking covering 60 miles of skiing on 1182 acres of terrain?
- 10) Who uses that monster snowmaking system just to help out their average of 250 inches of natural snow every year? If you haven't guessed by now, come out of your coma, and get to THE BIG K, THE BEAST OF THE EAST, KILLINGTON.

Because Killington is all the above and more, (and in this case, more – a great party trip). Fall Line just can't stop going back there year after year after year, and this year is no exception. The annual migration starts with a fun filled, party bus ride on January 20th 2006 to the North Star Lodge. Where else would we stay? It has the best heated pool and hot tub in the area (with Fall Liners having a pool party Saturday night), and the Grist Mill is oh so close. So don't miss the bus!

This year's early sign-up price of $349 includes the motor coach ride to and from Killington, beer, wine and soda on the bus, two night's accommodations at the North Star Lodge, buffet breakfast each morning, and a two-day lift ticket. What a deal!

The early sign-up price is only effective at the October 18th meeting (and this trip has been known to sell out on the first night). After that the price jumps to $369. This extremely popular trip sells out quickly, so be sure to come to the meeting early to plunk down your $100 deposit and reserve your spot. If you have any questions, call Ed Keating at (856) 429-0708.

But remember these extremely important facts — Killington, January 20-22, 2006 fun, fun and more fun

Get It With G

Hello everyone.

I hope that all who attended Snoball had a great time because I know that I did. If you did not get the chance to attend Snoball, hopefully you were lucky by winning one of our fabulous prizes. If you see your name, give him a call to arrange for you to pick up the gift.

I would like to thank Mike Gilbert, the Snoball Committee and everyone who pitched in and helped to once again have a successful Snoball. If anyone has any suggestions on ways we can generate more excitement like Texas Hold'em or possible connections about a new location, please do not hesitate to call Mike Gilbert or myself with your ideas.

Snoball

By Mike Gilbert

Well another Snoball has come and gone, and most who attended this year's event had a fabulous time. We had over 120 door prizes, visited terrific booths, had our palms read, backs massaged, tried our luck at Texas Hold'em, and Danced the Night away under the Direction of our DJ, Sam Harris.

An event such as this can only be successful through enormous efforts by all our volunteers. Here is a list of some of the people who once again went way above the normal call of duty:

Booth Sales	Excellent Job by Russ Consentino
Ticket Sales	Excellent Job by Siobhan Michaud.
Letters	Excellent Job by Nona Luce
Prizes	Excellent Job by Nona , Janice, Pat, Kathy, Taylor, and Carrie
Donations	Excellent Job by Brad Land, he secured nearly 30 prizes for us
Volunteers	Excellent Job by Carrie and Steve Lang
Publicity	Excellent Job by Wayne in News Print and by Marge Electronically
Finance	Excellent Job by Dennis and Nicole
Membership	Excellent Job by Brad and Robyn
Mentoring	Excellent Job by G and Patty

As everyone is aware, Fall Line is an organization of volunteers. Next time you see these people, make sure to volunteer your gratitude for all their efforts.

Great Job Everyone, Thanks for the effort!

Mike Gilbert

IMAX Theatre

And Pub Crawl

THE HUMAN BODY

Date: Friday, November 4, 2005

6:45 PM at the Franklin Institute IMAX Theatre
(Benjamin Franklin Parkway and 20th Street in Philadelphia)

Join us for an IMAX movie and fun afterwards at a local pub, open just for Fall Line. At the pub we'll have an appetizer buffet, beverages, and free pool tables. Later venture to one of many other local pubs within several blocks (Rose Tattoo, 19th & Callowhill; McCrossens, 20th just South of Spring Garden; Parkway Room, 22nd & Spring Garden; Tavern on Green, 21st and Green, as well as the many pubs like Bishops Collar, London Grill and Jacks Firehouse near Eastern State Prison, 22nd and Fairmount).

COST: $23

MUST BE PREPAID!!! ONLY FIRST 130 ADMITTED

Price includes IMAX admission, 2 drinks (beer or wine), lots of appetizers, and use of 2 pool tables.

REDUCED PARKING of $3 at the Franklin Institute.

Over 100 Fall Line members and guests have enjoyed each of our IMAX / Pub evenings. The movies are superb, and the drinks after are even better! Usually, about 1/3 of the attendees are not FLSC members, so come and meet some new friends!

The IMAX theater has tall, comfortable seats that rock and a domed, four-story screen with 56 speakers that makes for a larger-than-life movie.

Discover the story beneath the skin in The Human Body, an IMAX film that is a dramatic combination of live action, computer-generated graphics, microscopy, the latest medical imaging, and cutting-edge cinematic techniques. This large format film presents a look at the biological processes that go on without our control, and often without our notice. The result is a film that helps us understand the biological changes experienced by a real family.

Sunday River, ME

Feb 3rd-6th, 2006

"Where is Sunday River?" you ask. "Well, it is in Maine." I say. More specifically, it is located near the town of Bethel. Bethel, if you are looking at your map of Maine, is just over the New Hampshire border (that is the straight line, landside border of the state), just outside of the White Mountain National Forrest (known for its 48 high peaks). If you just happen to have the 1985 edition of The World Book Encyclopedia, it would be in Section K2!

Sunday River is 660 acres of ski resort. This includes 48 miles of skiable terrain - kind of like skiing from Philadelphia to Atlantic City except not in the straight line or flat surface. There are EIGHT interconnected mountains with 128 trails and glades. There are 18 lifts including 4 high-speed quads. Sunday River claims to be "the most dependable snow in New England". This is probably due in part to their extensive snowmaking capability with 1550 snowgods - oh, I mean snowguns!

Fall Line Ski Club will be aiming the ski bus express in that direction on Friday, February 3rd, 2006 at 6:00 PM. We will be spending a three-day SuperBowl weekend there. So as not to miss the game, we will be returning on Monday, February 6th. Boy, I can't think of a better après-ski soiree than a SuperBowl party!

Your package will include three nights lodging at the Snow Cap Inn, which is just a short walk or shuttle to the base lodge. It has an outdoor hot tub - also good for après-ski parties! Also included in the package are a three-day lift ticket, 3 Perfect Turn clinics, roundtrip ski bus (loaded with beer, wine and soda) transportation to and from Cherry Hill, NJ and the Snow Cap Inn. The package is $399 at the October 18th meeting only. After that, the price is $419.

There are so many good reasons to go on the Sunday River trip, I am not sure I could even limit them to a top ten. I will mention a few:

Sunday River is so diverse; there is something for everyone. You name it, they've got it. Steeps, bumps, cruising in the bowl, trees, for all levels. Or each person can try a little bit of everything. There are also 4 terrain parks, 2 halfpipes and 1 quarterpipe if you are training for the X-Games or even if you just want to have fun.

There's a section of Sunday River that is called the Land of Oz and it is well named.

You might catch a glimpse of the World's Largest Snowman (or at least the largest one Fall Line has ever seen) in Bethel, Maine.

You can't think of a better way to spend SuperBowl weekend than with your Fall Line friends. Or maybe you are a new member and want to make some new Fall Line friends. In either case, are you ready for the football?

You LOVE skiing and can't wait to get out and ski with fervor (intense, uncontrollable passion or emotion).

For more details see Sally Velez at sign-up or call 856-273-9079.

“YOU HOPE ALL NIGHTS IN THE THEATRE WILL BE LIKE THIS!”

Giraffes strut, birds swoop, gazelles leap! The entire savanna comes to life and, as the music soars, Pride Rock slowly rises out of the stage. This is “The Lion King.”

Marvel at the breathtaking spectacle of animals miraculously brought to life “in a blaze of fabulous imagination” by a cast of over 40 actors. Wonder at the inspiration of award-winning director/designer Julie Taymor, as one of the most successful films in history is stunningly recreated live on stage. Thrill to the pulsating rhythms of the African Pridelands and an unforgettable score including Elton John and Tim Rice’s Oscar® -winning “Can You Feel the Love Tonight” and songs by South African composer Lebo M, Mark Mancina, Jay Rifkin, Julie Taymor, and Hans Zimmer.

The winner of six 1998 Tony Awards, including Best New Musical, it is the story of a young lion cub named Simba who struggles to accept the responsibilities of adulthood and his destined role as king. To bring the classic 1994 film to life, Disney turned to the story’s roots, its rich mythology, powerful human drama and primal African rhythms to create a fantastic new musical unlike anything Broadway has ever seen.

Treat yourself and your friends and family to a memory that will last a lifetime at the musical Time Magazine calls “awe-inspiring! A gorgeous, gasp-inducing spectacle!”

Dragon Boat Races

By: Janice Lynch

If you are reading this on October 1st, put down the newsletter and get yourself over to the Schuylkill River for a great time laughing and cheering on the Fall Line team. 20 of us will all try to row (preferably at the same time) in one little boat with a dragon on the front along with a 21st person keeping us in time with a drum.

Ok, even if you don’t go, you can still participate by helping us raise funds for the Fox Chase Cancer Center. Just write out a check to them and give it to me at the next general meeting. It is tax deductible and goes to a worthy cause.

Congratulations to Jeff Hayfield, the winner of the Miller Lite Guitar. Thank you to Mark Williams for donating the guitar and help raise over $300 to Fox Chase.

MS 150

Thank you for your support. Fall Line had 10 riders for the trip and raised money for Multiple Sclerosis. You can still participate in this great cause by donating to help the team to defray expenses. Send checks made out to Fall Line Ski Club and mail them to Steve Lange, 3319 Oakmont St, Phila, PA 19136
