

Cervinia, Italy

Friday, January 22, to Tuesday, February 2, 2010

$2,269 With Florence Option

$2,125 Without Florence Option

Cervinia, Italy, world-class skiing on the Italian side of the Matterhorn. Disgustingly wide slopes, coupled with mind-boggling vertical, where?... CERVINIA! There are well-groomed slopes for intermediates and unlimited off-piste skiing for experts. It's possible to bag 5,000 feet of vertical in a single run! If vast Italian slopes below the most photographed rock on earth are not enough, add in skiing on the Plateau Rosa glacier (glaciers=consistently good snow & lots of it) with a state-of-the-art system of lifts & gondolas. While exploring this area, be sure not to miss the ski trek over the pass to Zermatt, Switzerland where all skiers can access the high runs & marvel at the fabulous views out over the most spectacular alpine scenery in Europe. An international mix of pubs and discos in Cervinia should satisfy your après ski desires.

We will be staying at the 4* Sertorelli Sport Hotel. The new indoor pool and hot tub, with views of the Matterhorn, are guaranteed to make your tired body feel alive again after a long day on the slopes. The hotel's ski shop can handle rentals, repairs, tune-ups and lessons & guide bookings for your convenience. Private shuttle to lifts is provided.

To top off this outstanding European holiday, join us for an optional 3 days/nights in Florence, home of the Renaissance and birthplace of our modern world. The Hotel Balestri lets you experience Florence up close. Located in the heart of Florence on the banks of the Arno River just seconds from the Ponte Vecchio and within easy walking distance of the Uffizi Gallery, the Accademia, Santa Croce, Brunelleschi's Duomo, and those great outdoor markets for the ultimate shopping fix.

The Trip Price Includes:
