

Jackson Hole, Wyoming

By Sara Walls

I know it is July but, everyone needs to start thinking about what trips they are going to sign up to go on next year because this one is going to go quick!! 42 lucky Fall Liners will be heading to Jackson Hole on February 6th 2010 for a week stay at the Wort Hotel. This hotel was opened in 1941 with the Silver Dollar Bar being added in 1950. The establishment is right down town close to all the activity. The trip opens at the July 21st meeting for the early sign up price of $1,599.00. This will include round trip airfare from Philadelphia to Jackson Hole, all the transfers, 7 nights at the hotel (the hotel offers a daily "quick skier's hot breakfast"- join me on the trip to verify exactly what that includes), mid week party and a five-day lift pass.

Jackson Hole has plenty of mellow corduroy as well as bowls, cliffs and adrenaline pumping steeps. They have an annual snowfall of 459", making it one of the premier powder places. Jackson Hole is a mountain for skiers of all abilities and not just for experts anymore. No other ski resort has 4,139' of continuous vertical rise, two neighboring national parks, 8000 grazing elk (which can actually be seen while skiing on several trails) and the authentic western flavor. You will find hundreds of miles of remarkable runs, exhilarating views and unexpected pleasures at every turn-on and off the mountain. The tram will take you to the top in 7 minutes. The Bridger gondola takes you to the base of Headwall in 7 ½ minutes. Powder snow, breathtaking views, uncrowded slopes and wild western fun, puts this trip at the top of your "must do" list. Anyone interested in a side trip to ski Grand Targhee, a snowmobile ride at Yellowstone National Park or how about a sleigh ride to see the elk herds?

Jackson's Historic Landmark, The Wort Hotel, is an elegant hotel rich in the history that thrives in the heart of Jackson Hole. Located one half block from the town square, The Wort Hotel is steps from the best boutiques, museums, galleries, restaurants and nightlife, including our own famous Silver Dollar Bar. Providing the charm and intimacy of a world class country inn and the exceptional service of a grand hotel, The Wort Hotel offers comfort and luxury to guests after exhilarating days of exploring nearby Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks. Come experience The Wort Hotel's western hospitality that has become a tradition for the many annual visitors to Jackson Hole. The Wort Hotel is the place to be. Find out why everyone says "Meet me at the Wort"!

Hurry because good news travels fast and only 42 Fall Liners will get a chance to play at Jackson Hole, so don't put it off. Be at the July 21st and August 4th meetings for the early sign up discount because after the August 4th meeting the trip price will be $1,649.00 IF there are any spots left!
