

Jay Peak – It just Keeps Getting Better!!!

By: Pat Maguire

Once again all the ingredients for the perfect ski weekend have been gathered together and put into the Fall Line Cuisineart and the result is Jay Peak!!! By popular demand, Fall Liners will be returning to this snow sure destination for a 3-day weekend, Thursday, March 1, through March 4, 2012.

Being the beneficiary of remarkable snowfall (351 average inches per year), this unique and distinct mountain has something to offer skiers of all ability levels.

Advanced skiers will discover chutes, bumps and steeps. Jonesin' to brush up on your tree skiing? Having been judged The Best in North America, Jay's large and diverse glade system is the place to go. They even have a few tree runs for beginners.

Not a "tree basher"? With 75 trails and 285 acres, there's plenty left on Jay Peak's plate. Intermediate skiers can satisfy their craving for real "New England" skiing at its best - narrow runs and trails that meander through evergreen and hardwood glades. Even beginners and old dogs alike, can sate their skiing appetites by taking advantage of the group lessons on Friday and Saturday.

Now, onto the lodging. As many of you know, the Hotel Jay was demolished over a year ago, to make way for a brand spanking new hotel and indoor waterpark. The wait is nearly over (it is being built as I write this). We will reap the benefits of all their hard work. Our good friends at Jay Peak cannot wait to show it all off to us and have offered FLSC a sweet deal by holding to last year's price and including a 3 day pass to their new Pumphouse, the largest indoor waterpark. For the big kid in all of us, this includes the only indoor aqua loop ride, anywhere. There is a large hot tub adjacent to the bar, to boot!

The NEW Hotel Jay is located steps from the Tram and Flyer Quad. The hotel includes a brick-oven pizzeria, bar, and restaurant (Foundry).

We will have the choice of enjoying breakfasts and dinners at The Foundry (in Hotel Jay), Alice's Table (in the Tram Haus Lodge) or the Golf Clubhouse Restaurant.

This trip is truly a bargain. Just to recap, the trip price includes:

- Round-trip motor coach from Cherry Hill to Jay Peak
- 3 nights accommodations at the brand new Hotel Jay (ski-in and out)
- 3 breakfasts and 2 dinners
- 3 day lift pass
- 2 Group Lessons on Friday AM or PM and Sunday AM
- 3 day pass to The Pumphouse indoor waterpark
- Wine and cheese reception

All of the above for $579, early sign-up on October 4, and $609, thereafter. Contact Information: Pat Maguire at 856-772-1120 or pkm1111@hotmail.com
