Snowbird 2009 -The Tradition Continues...

December 16 – 21, 2009

By Jeff Stein

Here we are, right in the heat of summer, and we are already talking about the 2009 – 2010 ski season. But, folks, it is time. Yes, it is time to yank out that checkbook and get ready to join your fellow Fall Liners at what has become the early season traditional favorite ski destination... Snowbird, Utah. If you act promptly, you will be one of a limited number of people (24) who have the unique opportunity to help kick-off the Fall Line ski season.

One Lift Ticket...Two Great Ski Destinations..

One lift ticket gets you back-to-back twofer skiing on interconnected trails at Snowbird and Alta. This is not just any old mountain snow; this is Utah powder! Ok, it is early season skiing, but if you are going to do it, then just go west and do it in Utah. And, this year we are going to go one week later than last season. So, we can only anticipate that more lifts trails and the Snowbird-Alta interconnect lift/trail will be open. Snowbird and Alta have been named the # 1 ski resort in the United States by SKIING Magazine for five years in a row. Snowbird averages about 500 inches of low-density, "dry" Utah powder annually and offers skiing on over 2,500 acres. For the 2008-09 season, Alta/Snowbird had almost 700 inches of fluffy snow!

The Mountain and Lodge...

Just Unbeatable...

Fall Line will be returning to the popular Lodge at Snowbird. This slope-side resort offers many popular amenities that include a hot tub, steam room, dry saunas and an outdoor heated swimming pool. The lodge is a short walk to the Snowbird Center with access to the Tram, Peruvian chair lift or the cat track to Gad alley.

Getting there made easier...

We will be flying roundtrip on Delta (Philadelphia to Salt Lake City). The trip package includes: air transportation, roundtrip transfers from Salt Lake City to Snowbird, four-day interchangeable Snowbird/Alta lift pass, as well as the Fall Line infamous pizza party!

Don't Wait....

Space on this trip is limited to 24 members. The discount signup dates are Tuesday, 7/21 and 8/4. Early sign up discount is: $50! As of this writing, trip cost is to be determined.
