Val Di Fassa is home to Olympic Champion, Alberto Tomba and the Italian National Ski Team, call it yours and ski it for yourself in 2008. Dolomiti Superski is the largest series of lift-linked ski resorts in the world available on a single lift ticket, with 1,220km (758 miles) of ski runs served by 460 lifts, just waiting to be discovered. Val Di Fassa offers fantastic skiing on snow sure slopes (almost 100% snowmaking if the snow gods don't deliver). What is on offer here is absolutely unique, with hundreds of runs to suit all levels. The innumerable thrilling descents offered by the Dolomiti Superski complex are the stuff dreams are made of. There is skiing for every level from long, open cruisers that encircle the Sella Ronda and other areas to the challenging steep slopes of Arabba and Latemar. Try the World Cup runs through Selva, Val Gardena & Alta Badia, San Cassiano. Their world famous Skitours/Ski Circuses cannot be ignored. We will be staying in the picturesque village of Pozza Di Fassa at the 4* Gran Baita Villa Mitzi Hotel. The free ski shuttle is right outside our door. There are non-skiing possibilities for immersing yourself into the culture, folklore & flavors by visiting Trento, Innsbruck, Cortina, or Bolzano to name a few. A day in Bolzano wouldn't be complete without visiting the famous Oetzi, or ice-man. He's estimated to be 5,000 years old & was discovered in 1991, still frozen in a melting glacier.

Our post-ski extension is one day/night in Verona at the 4* Hotel Accademia overlooking the central Via Mazzini. This renowned Veronese shopping promenade is a few minutes walk from main churches, museums and major historical sites such as the Arena (Roman amphitheatre) and Juliet's balcony. Verona's main attractions are its wealth of Roman ruins and the capital of grappa! Make time to wander, explore, shop and simply be. Gaze at the 15th century frescoes in Piazza Erbe, Verona's market square. Take part in the tradition of rubbing the breast of Juliet's statue. Why? For a better love life, of course!
