By: Marianne Sladzinski

.... Come play and feel the LOVE in New Hampshire from Thursday, January 27 through Sunday, January 30, 2011! Why not celebrate Valentine's Day early? If you're planning to ski the East this season... Waterville Valley is THE TRIP for YOU! Two great mountains (WV and Loon)... three days of skiing... and the camaraderie of other ski club members in addition to Fall Line. This is the Eastern Pennsylvania Ski Council's Annual Winter Carnival weekend... with lots of special events, both on and off the mountain. Never skied New Hampshire? Here's a brief picture of the LOVE that awaits you, on and off the mountain:

SKIING You'll LOVE:

Waterville Valley is New Hampshire's genuine ski resort in a natural snow pocket in the White Mountains, surrounded by other 4,000 footers. To ski Waterville Valley is to love it. Love is the thrill of the first ski run of the day down White Caps. It's a powder snow day on Ciao. Love is carving down Waterville's wide-open blue called Tippecanoe. It's Exhibition and Little Slammer Terrain Park. Love is Waterville's passion for perfect snow and creating the perfect ski day. With 52 ski trails, served by 12 lifts, and a 4,000 ft. summit, Waterville Valley is one of the highest mountains in New England with a 2,020 ft. vertical. And for those who love to ski as fast as you can, join us at the races: Race gate runs Friday and Nastar race on Saturday! I can just feel the LOVE on the slopes... can't you?

Loon Mountain (Optional – Sunday): Loon has broken out of its Miss Congeniality role and leapt into the East's top 10. Skiers appreciate the "Excellent Lifts" and variety of trails. The addition of Ripsaw has boosted its expert appeal. Investment in grooming and snowmaking have delivered great conditions and the new South Peak trails offer a different vantage point, broadening Loon's "awesome" White Mt. views. Bonus: Loon Mountain Zip Line Ride available Sunday for $20/person, if we can get 20 people!!

LODGING You'll LOVE: You'll be staying in the Town Square Condos that combine the luxury of comfortable lodging with the convenience of one of the Valley's best locations..... in the center of our self-contained mountain village with an assortment of shops, dining and entertainment just footsteps away.

PARTY TIME You'll LOVE: It's Carnival Weekend ... and FLSC with the EPSC has a full weekend of events all at the Waterville Valley Conference Center. Start mingling at the welcome reception Friday night. Ease on into more fun during the cocktail hour, buffet dinner, and dancing (DJ from 7-11pm). Celebrate with a big bang during the fireworks that night, too!! Are you feeling the LOVE?
