Together, Whistler and Blackcomb Mountains are nothing short of the most remarkable skiing experience on this continent. Number one in North America for vertical rise (5,000 feet); variety and expanse of terrain (8,000 skiable acres); lift system (33 in total with 17 high-speed lifts); friendly service and 100% pure skiing ecstasy. Twelve incredible bowls, including three glaciers, and more than 200 marked trails – steep powder chutes, challenging mogul trials, and groomed-to-perfection cruisers – offer skiers endless enjoyment. It's a picture book come to life. Imagine a European-style village with West Coast charm spectacular scenery at every turn, and of course, unequivocal skiing. The two mountains are now connected by the Peak 2 Gondola. A quick eleven minute ride will take you from one mountain to the other.
