FALL LINE SKI CLUB
POWDER EXPRESS

Tuesday, December 18th

Holiday Party Mixer Meeting

The Taproom - Haddon Township, NJ

Party starts at 7:30 PM

YOU'RE INVITED – Fall Line Ski Club is celebrating Christmas and bringing friends together for winter and social fun. Come out and join your fellow Fall Liners to celebrate the season at our last Mixer Meeting of 2018.

Païd members will be given a free drink ticket. Limited hors d'oeuvres courtesy of FLSC will be served for all.

NONA'S NOTES

As I write this, the first snow of the season has fallen. It won't last long at this time of year (I hope) but we will see if it foreshadows the winter season. Hopefully snow will be falling at our planned ski destinations. The ski season is approaching fast. Final payments are coming due and we all look forward to getting the ski equipment ready to go! Whether you are joining us on a day trip to the Poconos, your first trip out west or are a long time member, "It's the Most Wonderful Time of the Year" for Fall Liners.

In the meantime the winter holidays will soon be here. You can always tell the holiday season is approaching by the increasing number of "original" holiday movies that crowd the TV line-up (Some scintillating samples from TV Guide - "Yes, a PR assistant lands a prince!" and "No way this mountain-town baker will let that real-estate developer barge in and build a corporate ski resort. But he is cute!").

Fall Line will also ring in the holiday season. I hope to see everyone at our December meeting/holiday party on December 18 at the Tap Room. Celebrate the season with your fellow Fall Liners! All paid up members receive a drink ticket and there will be finger food and munchies to share, holiday music and cheer! This is just a fun time to get out and enjoy the season. No pressure and no one to impress. You are free to break out your favorite holiday outfit (or not!!!).

Fall Line also gives back at this time of year to honor the Christmas spirit. Come join other members of Fall Line as they help distribute food baskets for Heart of Camden and help make Christmas a true holiday for many in need.

I wish everyone in Fall Line a joyous holiday season and a Happy (and healthy) New Year!

SANTA'S HELPERS NEEDED

By Janice Lynch

The holidays are quickly coming upon us. With the hustle and bustle of last minute shopping it is sometimes nice to take the time out and do something for those less fortunate than you. On Saturday, December 22nd at 9:30 am volunteers are needed to assist Sacred Heart Church and Heart of Camden Housing Corporation in distributing over 1,000 food baskets for those in need. After a prayer of thanksgiving and a religious song or two, the volunteers are given a map, they load up their cars and set off on what can only be described as a bizarre scavenger hunt to deliver all the makings of a holiday feast in some of the most poorly marked blocks and houses in Camden. Sacred Heart Church is located at 1739 Ferry Avenue, Camden, NJ 08104 (where Ferry Ave intersects Broadway Ave). Last year they released people (around 10am) in pew order and the first 50 cars got special cards that put their cars in the front of the line so ask about it when you get there. Park as close as you can since a peach basket full of food can get surprisingly heavy. We recommend that each car or truck should have 2 or 3 people in it since someone should stay with the car while others navigate and deliver the baskets. Coming by yourself is not a problem, just come a little early and see me so I can find you someone to pair you up with. I can usually be found near the door distributing the maps with a funny hat on. No need to RSVP, just show up. If you get lost, call my cell phone 856-816-2865, but leave a return number. Reception is spotty at best in 100-year-old stone church basements. It usually takes until about 12:30 pm to 2 to deliver the baskets. You can leave when you want although some Fall Liners go to a local watering hole afterwards for lunch. Just be forewarned.... You might have fun and feel good about yourself afterwards. If you have any questions please just call me. If you can't make it but still want to help build homes for those less fortunate in Camden, send a check to the Heart of Camden, 1840 S. Broadway, Camden, NJ 08104. Donation money is tight and they really could use your help this year in any amount that you could afford. Thank you in advance for thinking of those in need, even if you can't give of your time or money.

FALL LINE SKI CLUB BOOK CLUB
DECEMBER 3RD, 7:30 - THE TAPROOM
427 Crystal Lake Ave
Haddonfield, NJ (Haddon Township)
(Meet in the smaller Fireplace Room)

The book for the month of December will be: The Vengeances of Mothers by Jim Fergus. The stunning sequel to the award-winning novel One Thousand White Women:

9 March 1876 - My name is Meggie Kelly and I take up this pencil with my twin sister, Susie. We have nothing left, less than nothing. The village of our People has been destroyed, all our possessions burned, our friends butchered by the soldiers, our baby daughters gone, frozen to death on an ungodly trek across these rocky mountains. Empty of human feeling, half-dead ourselves, all that remains of us intact are hearts turned to stone. We curse the U.S. government, we curse the Army, we curse the savagery of mankind, white and Indian alike. We curse God in his heaven. Do not underestimate the power of a mother's vengeance...

So begins the Journal of Margaret Kelly, a woman who participated in the U.S. government's "Brides for Indians" program in 1873, a program whose conceit was that the way to peace between the United States and the Cheyenne Nation was for One Thousand White Women to be given as brides in exchange for three hundred horses. These "brides" were mostly fallen women; women in prison, prostitutes, the occasional adventurer, or those incarcerated in asylums. No one expected this program to work. And the brides themselves thought of it simply as a chance at freedom. But many of them fell in love with their Cheyenne spouses and had children with them...and became Cheyenne themselves.

The Vengeance of Mothers explores what happens to the bonds between wives and husbands, children and mothers, when society sees them as "unspeakable." What does it mean to be white, to be Cheyenne, and how far will these women go to avenge the ones they love? With vivid detail and keen emotional depth, Jim Fergus brings to light a time and place in American history and fills it with unforgettable characters who live and breathe with a passion we can relate to even today.
