Nowhere else in America will you find such tremendous top-to-bottom vertical, more natural terrain features, fewer "cut" trails, backcountry access and extreme skiing with chutes, cliffs and steeps all inbounds. This terrain is a proving ground for extreme skills. There's also plenty of intermediate and beginner terrain. The town of Jackson offers an eclectic mix of Wild West (check out the famous Cowboy Bar where saddles are used in lieu of barstools) and many modern amenities. Yellowstone National Park, Old Faithful, Grand Teton National Park and the National Elk Refuge are all located nearby. The local airport makes Jackson a super-accessible destination.

This is cowboy country, the best of the Old West, casual and relaxed, yet at the same time, as challenging on skis as you wish to make it. Think big when you think of Jackson Hole skiing: 2,500 acres of great skiing, including the 4,139 foot continuous vertical drop of Rendezvous Mountain, a must for experts. Après Vous Mountain offers spacious cruising and Casper Bowl lures intermediates with just the right degree of challenge. Beginners have plenty of choices also in this vast mountain scape.

And because a Jackson Hole ski vacation is set in the heart of the Grand Tetons, there are spectacular "extras" like Yellowstone National Park and Old Faithful as well as the National Elk Refuge nearby. Off-slope activities are numerous and interesting and include choices such as snow biking, dogsleds and sleigh rides, snowmobiles and cross country excursions to the neighboring national parks. Chuck wagon cookouts and raucous cowboy bars add to the unique ambiance of Jackson Hole. But there are also fine restaurants and superb accommodations to insure a variety-packed vacation.

The Rustic Inn is located on twelve lush acres adjacent to the National Elk Refuge and just a few blocks from Jackson's lively town square. The Rustic Inn Creekside Resort & Spa in Jackson Hole welcomes guests with warm Western hospitality. Enjoy the lavishly appointed historic lodging accommodations and luxury log cabins at our boutique hotel.
