POWDER EXPRESS

KILLINGTON 2017

By John Moffat

On the weeks leading up to the trip, we all knew this was going to be a great trip. Lynn Raheb from the Bucks Mount Ski and Snowboard Club knew back in August and got on the trip. While Marianne Sladzinski, Peter Dolan and Brian got on the trip at the last minute. Bill Cook, Paul Preihis, and their friend Brian couldn't wait for the bus. They drove up early on Friday to get in an extra day of skiing.

While 18 Fall Liners got picked up by our Hagey bus driver Bob who told us that he was - "No not that Bob".

The socializing got under way quickly. The Captain joined us and so did his fireball friend. Bobby and Laura were on the trip doing their thing - Bobby on the phone and Laura playing songs. John Greenstreet and his wife Ann Bender along with Marty and Kay Mendetta were looking forward to two days of great skiing.

We made a stop at the Sloatsburg rest stop and picked up our good friend Peter Dolan. At 11:15pm we pulled into the parking lot of the Killington Mountain Lodge. Jeff Spicer won the arrival pool. Most of us unpacked and went to the bars. The hotel bar is very nice. Patty Shearer, Mike Houlihan, Alice Cupaiuolo, and I headed over to Moguls to meet up with Bill, Paul, and Brian. Patty Shearer had no repeat of last year.

Breakfast started at 7am. Charles Smollin was anxious to get started and was first in line. Janice Lynch, Marianne, Lynn, and John Kennedy didn't wait for the bus and hopped on the hotel's shuttle bus to Snowshed lodge. Ann and Charles took lessons.

Some of us met up for lunch at the Peak Lodge, which is the lodge at the top of the K1 gondola. Lift lines were non-existent unless you wanted to ride the K1, in which case you had to wait 15 minutes. After an expensive lunch, John Greenstreet and I skied the moguls on Royal Flush, Ovation, Super Star plus an unmarked tree run, then back to Super Star. My legs were done.

We ran into Fall Liners in the bar at Snowshed, but headed back to the hotel and the hot tub. The rest of the group showed up a few hours later at the Snowshed bar then came back and piled into the hot tub with fellow skiers from a Connecticut ski club. 15 Fall Liners enjoyed Fire Ball shots courtesy of Marge Harlow.

There was one injury during this day of skiing. Patty hit a rock, fell, landed on another rock and ended up with a black eye. You can "barely" notice it Patty.

John and Ann headed over to Moguls for their great ribs. Lynn, Charles, Paul Biscula, Kay and Marty, and I went to Moguls later on. Meanwhile Marianne, Janice, Patty, Laura, Bobby, Jeff, Marge Alice, Mike, and Peter finally got out of the hot tub and went to the Outback for pizza.

Back at the hotel, some of the group pulled up chairs to the fireplace and fell asleep, while others played several rounds on an oversized Jenga.

On Sunday, Ann decided she wanted to take a trip to explore the nature in Vermont and was rewarded with some awesome magazine quality pictures.

As for the rest of us, the -7 degree temp didn't keep

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Fall Liners,

Welcome to winter!! The ski season is well underway and Fall Line has a grand line up of exciting trips. The snow out west has been epic this season. This month we have trips to Park City, Utah and Chamonix, France. I am looking forward to hearing all about the skiing adventures. I especially want to give a great big Thank You to the winter trip committee for their hard work in planning this year's ski extravaganza. You guys rock!

Have you been able to join your fellow Fall Liners in any of our wonderful social events? Let me break it down for you. Every Wednesday, Nona Luce hosts a movie night. The price is only $5 at the Carmike Ritz Theater in Voorhees. You can't beat that price, and who doesn't love to go to the movies. Linda Abel has done a great job of coordinating Happy Hours at a different venue every Friday. This is a chance to just relax and share a toast to the end of your busy work -week with friends. Jeannie Nelson is hosting a book club every month. If you love reading and want to get out for some stimulating conversation, come join us. Please check the weekly blast and our newsletter for more details on these and other events planned throughout the coming months.

We are busy planning for our Spring Fling. The Spring Fling will be at Indian Springs on April 29th. We all get together to share our experiences on the slopes, and to celebrate the end of another successful ski season with good friends, good food and spirits. Please stay tuned for more information.

I wish you all a very Happy Valentines Day, and great skiing!!

Cheers,

us Fall Liners from skiing, but did scare the faint of heart who stayed off the mountain. There was no wind and it was a warm -7, if you can believe that. The brave (or foolish), John, John and John (notice a pattern) decided since they blew snow on Outer Limits all day on Saturday that the moguls had to be good on Sunday. Boy were we wrong. One run and we were off to easier trails. Fall Liners had great snow and no lift lines. Those of us tracking our vertical distance, had a stellar day. Lunch was at the Sunrise Café. Again no waiting, but good food and good company.

Some of the veterans in the group decided to get some food at Moguls for the ride home on the bus. We watched Eddie the Eagle and then Bridge of Spies. Thank you Marge for supplying them. Our driver Bob did a great job and we were home by 11:15.

Another great trip.

SANTA'S HELPERS

By Janice Lynch

On Saturday, December 24th 20 Fall Liners, families and friends started off their Christmas Eve by assisting Sacred Heart Church and Heart of Camden Housing Corporation in distributing over 1,000 food baskets for those in need so they could have a holiday feast.

Those peach baskets filled with food were heavy, not including a ham this year (rather than the normal frozen turkey due to the late date). They quickly became light when people doubled up and shared the lifting.

Thanks to all the regulars who showed up for this annual event, but a special thanks to Rich Hartshorne who came with his Mason brothers and Debbie Carey's son Mathew who came over from England and spent part of his limited vacation time doing good for others.

If you couldn't make it, but still want to help out, the Heart of Camden is a year round organization helping those in Camden by building low income housing, as well as safe entertainment options such as gym in addition to having already built a theater and writer's house. Money is tight this year and they really could use your help in any amount that you could afford. A check can be sent to the Heart of Camden, 1840 S. Broadway, Camden, NJ 08104.

Thanks again, and see you next year on Saturday December 23, 2017.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6

FALL LINE SKI CLUB BOOK CLUB

The Tap Room

427 Crystal Lake Avenue

Haddonfield, NJ (Haddon Township)

Meet in the smaller Fireplace Room

7:30 PM

We had a great time and turnout for our first FLSC Book Club meeting in January. The book this month will be "A Man Called Ove" by Fredrik Backman.

Meet Ove. He's a curmudgeon—the kind of man who points at people he dislikes as if they were burglars caught outside his bedroom window. He has staunch principles, strict routines, and a short fuse. People call him "the bitter neighbor from hell." But must Ove be bitter just because he doesn't walk around with a smile plastered to his face all the time?

Behind the cranky exterior there is a story and a sadness. So when one November morning a chatty young couple with two chatty young daughters move in next door and accidentally flatten Ove's mailbox, it is the lead-in to a comical and heartwarming tale of unkempt cats, unexpected friendship, and the ancient art of backing up a U-Haul. All of which will change one cranky old man and a local residents' association to their very foundations.

A feel-good story in the spirit of The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry and Major Pettigrew's Last Stand, Fredrik Backman's novel about the angry old man next door is a thoughtful exploration of the profound impact one life has on countless others. "If there was an award for 'Most Charming Book of the Year,' this first novel by a Swedish blogger-turned-overnight-sensation would win hands down" (Booklist, starred review).

There are many places to get your books. Your local Library (free), audio or on your e-reader (Nook, Kindle & etc.). Several sites offer books at prices anywhere from free to $2.99 each.

L.U.C.Y SAYS THANKS

By Joe Broski

Many thanks to our members for their support of L.U.C.Y. Outreach at the December 20 Mixer / Holiday Party. "Lifting Up Camden's Youth" (L.U.C.Y. ) helps underprivileged children in Camden. One of their projects is to take children skiing for the day and Fall Liners responded with coats, pants, gloves, scarfs, and hats to keep the children warm. $260 in cash donations was also received. Fall Liners are the BEST!!
