POWDER EXPRESS

Just A Word Of Thanks....

By Janice Lynch

On December 20th, the Sacred Heart Church and the Heart of Camden Housing Corporation delivered food baskets complete with turkeys to over 1080 families in Camden. We are not talking small single little grocery bags of food, we are talking peach baskets filled with heavy canned goods, eggs, butter and all the fixings for Christmas dinner or whatever holiday the recipients chose to celebrate. I asked for a few Santa's helpers from Fall Line and over 20 Fall Liners, with their friends and family showed up with their cars and trucks. Rich came with his Mason brothers, several people came with their Santa hats or Eagles Christmas hats, Debbie came with her reindeer antlers and Marianne came as Tiny Tim with her single crutch.

Every year it is an impressive site to see the rooms filled with the baskets beforehand and equally impressive to see how fast so many helping hands can get the job done. I hear a bunch of people went over to PJ Whelihan's for lunch afterwards. Sorry I was not able to make it over there in time to personally say thank you, but on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Heart of Camden and myself, thank you. It may not have been life changing, but for someone struggling with financial issues you help make their holiday season just a little brighter knowing they know where their holiday feast was coming from.

JANUARY PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Warm Greetings and Happy New Year to All!! I am looking forward to a wonderful ski season with the fantastic trips that have been planned for all of us by our Winter Trip Committee. There are still openings on most of the trips so contact the trip leader if you are interested, but sooner rather than later, to ensure yourself a spot.

As we move into 2015 I invite all of you to contact myself or other members of the Board and the Winter Trip Committee with any thoughts, suggestions, concerns you may have with our Club. I have spoken to several of you at our social gatherings in regards to running a trip. Please contact Patty Shearer and make her aware of your interest if you wish to run a winter trip. Several people commented they had never run a trip and did not know how to. Rest assured the Winter Trip Committee assigns a trip coordinator that will guide you through the process. Also, in your trip packet there will be a CD for you to view explaining all the documents in your trip folder to basically get you going. If you are new to the process they would like you to have run a weekend trip first. I am letting all of you know this because that was my apprehension about signing on to be a trip leader. Believe me, they do not throw you to the wolves!

The same goes for the Social Activities Committee. We are looking for Event Leaders interested in introducing us to some fun ideas for places to go, things to do. Please contact Nona Luce regarding interest in running a social event or to share any of your suggestions and she would be happy to guide you along the way. Our social calendar will start picking up after the ski season so put your thinking caps on. All thoughts are welcome.

I wish you all safe journeys on your ski trips and the most wonderful of times with your fellow skiers.

Chris Vitale, President Elect

Being traditionally Italian, Osteria offers a dining experience like no other with its delectable menu of homemade pastas, house cured salami, authentic Neapolitan and Roman-style pizzas and wood grilled meats and fish.

An integral player in the rebirth of the Moorestown mall, the restaurant is the second location of the critically acclaimed Osteria originally founded in Philadelphia by Veri family partners Jeff Benjamin and Chefs Marc Veri, Jeff Michaud and Brad Spence, and is the group's first venture outside of Pennsylvania. While it shows the same spirit, award-winning food- rated 3-out of-4 Bells by the Philadelphia Inquirer-warm hospitality and evocative, industrial aesthetic of its sister restaurant, Osteria Moorestown offers a unique experience all its own.
