FALL LINE POWDER EXPRESS

FERNIE/WHITEFISH/PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Fall Line Mike Says...

In this issue I'm making a plug for the Fernie/Whitefish 2018 ski trip – March 17th to the 24th. Out of a recent listing of world's top 25 best ski towns Fernie was listed 2nd and Whitefish is listed as number 7. Here is some of what they say about it

Just what makes a classic ski town? It starts, naturally, with skiing and snowboarding so good they attract people like youth-bestowing fountains. Then add an inviting mountain burg steeped in ski heritage, amenities, and culture. For insider tips, we asked local luminaries where to stay, play, and party, whether you're on a budget or indulging.

Fernie, British Columbia, Canada

Best For: Adventurous skiers with a hunger for the steep and deep

Though it serves up some of the most spectacular terrain and best snow in all of Canada, this historic mining hamlet of 4,217 people tucked into the far southeastern corner of British Columbia still somehow flies below the greater ski-scene radar. Which isn't a bad thing—its wide-open alpine bowls, knife ridges, and daredevil chutes are rarely crowded, and fresh tracks can still be found in afternoons on powder days. For many skiers and snowboarders it hits the Canadian sweet spot, with more consistent powder than Whistler and warmer temperatures than Banff.

Similar to its American cousin, Whitefish, a hundred miles to the south, Fernie is a small, funky town with a tiny yet charming downtown. Restaurants are eclectic and unpretentious, the old train station has been converted to an arts center, and ski bums abound. It's the kind of town where old skis are turned into fences, benches, and coat racks. Thanks to new developments at the base of the hill and in town, lodging options at all price points abound, from hostels to luxury lodges.

Fernie Alpine Resort overlooks the Elk River Valley from 4.5 miles outside town, clinging to the sculpted faces of the Lizard Range. Its five distinct bowls will keep advanced skiers and snowboarders drunk on adrenaline all day, while the new chairlift to the summit of Polar Peak opens up hundred-mile mountain views and 3,497 feet of vertical drop.

Diehard powder addicts can head up to the Bear Lodge of Island Lake Catskiing, a few miles past the ski area, for world-class cat skiing.

Ask a Local

Brian Bell came to Fernie in 1993, living in his van, to ski for a winter and never left. He's been running the Mountain Adventure Skills Training Program at the Fernie Campus of the College of the Rockies for 15 years. Here are his recommendations.

Best Digs

Swank: The Lizard Creek Lodge on the mountain is ski-in, ski-out.

Best Eats

Cheap: Big Bang Bagels—get the “Mr. Fernie” on a whole wheat salty top.

Gourmet: Picnic Restaurant + Social has beautiful ambiance and the slow-braised buffalo ribs are fantastic.

Best After-Ski Party Spot

The Griz Bar right at the hill has the best nachos in town and great acoustic après-ski bands. Be sure to ask about the naked table sliding.

Best Rest-Day Activity

Hang out sipping espressos at Bean Pod, the best coffee (and handmade artisan chocolates) most likely in the Western Hemisphere. Then go fondle all the beautiful skis at the local ski shops in historic downtown Fernie.

Fernie's Classic Ski Run

“Sky Dive nonstop, top to bottom. By far the best fall line on the hill,” says Bell.

Whitefish, Montana

Best For: Families and groups with disparate skiing abilities

Whitefish, a former logging and railroad town of more than 6,000 near the entrance to Glacier National Park, has been quietly delivering glitz-free Montana skiing for over half a century. Despite a recent influx of Mercedes and fur coats, the town has managed to maintain its appealingly rough-hewn character. The newly rechristened Whitefish Mountain Resort, the resort formerly known as Big Mountain, looms invitingly above the bars and restaurants of the Western-style downtown, which is anchored by Whitefish's historic train station. About 15 percent of Whitefish's winter visitors arrive via daily train service, which, combined with the free skier shuttle that connects town to mountain, makes car-free trips here easy.

Whitefish the ski area lives up to its family-friendly billing with good first-timer terrain and an abundance of long, wide-open, roller coaster groomers where skiers and snowboarders of all abilities can get their superhero on. A high-speed quad speeds to the mountain's summit, which is often engulfed in clouds and studded with thickly rimmed, white trees known as "snow ghosts." The ghosts make for atmospheric glade skiing. Experts will find ample pockets of steep and deep terrain, including an abundance of backwoods tree skiing on the mountain's less visited north side. Crowds are rarely a problem anywhere on the mountain. On clear days, views from the Summit House cafeteria into Glacier are stunning.

Ask a Local

Ski patroller and fly-fishing guide Ryan Friel is a 17-year resident of Whitefish and one of the founding editors of the Whitefish Review literary journal. Here are his recommendations.

Best Eats

Cheap: At the Buffalo Cafe, you can split any of the buffalo pies, a breakfast delight of hashbrowns, ham, cheese, and eggs (with no buffalo meat), and still feel like you had a meal.

Gourmet: Tupelo Grille has a great dinner menu: chicken and dumplings, a phenomenal wine selection, and a bread pudding that's not to be overlooked.

Best After-Ski Party Spot

Don't miss the local flair at the on-mountain Bierstube: good bar food, cheap drinks, and the vibe that says après.

Best Rest-Day Activity

Go shopping in Whitefish's pedestrian-friendly, vibrant downtown and take tours of the Great Northern Brewery.

Whitefish's Classic Run

The world-class groomers always make Inspiration and Big Ravine cruising delights. Advanced skiers should head for the East Rim and the Picture Chutes.

July 18th is the first opportunity to sign-up for the Two-Nation vacation: Fernie/Whitefish.

This is a six day ski trip with 3 days at each resort. Transportation between the resorts and airport are easy. Both ski lodges are right on the mountain with plenty to do in the apres ski category, dinning, hot tubs & heated pools, ski shops, etc. With lower peaks no altitude issues, no lift lines, always tons of snow and incredible skiing. Come ski with me!

SUN VALLEY, IDAHO MARCH 3, THROUGH MARCH 10

By: Deb Taraska and Sara Walls

Ever wish you had a time machine so you could go back and not miss out on a great ski trip. This is the trip that will let us all feel like we jumped back in time. Fall Line Ski Club is rolling back time five years for a great destination. On July 18th you can reserve your spot to go to Sun Valley for the low price of $1,799. This trip includes all of the normal perks: air from Philly to Boise, connecting transportation from the airport to the Sun Valley Inn, and 5 of 6 days of skiing. For $60 extra you can add another day of skiing, or if you want to take a break you can exchange one day for a variety of other options that will make your trip memorable (discounts on Nordic Package, Heli-skiing, dining, shopping, or massages). We will not only have a Fall Line party but to spruce things up a bit the mountain is sponsoring a "Ski Club Theme Week". Theme week include: Mountain Orientation, Welcome Party, Secret Sales and free access to the local YMCA.

Sun Valley Resort is a world-class destination for skiing and snowboarding, where many winter Olympians call these mountains home. The focal point of Sun Valley is Bald Mountain or "Baldy" as the locals affectionately call it. This towering peak has a vertical descent of over 3,400 feet and is home to all the advanced trails and expert bowls. Many skiers consider Baldy to be "the single best ski mountain in the world." The separate Dollar Mountain provides a safe and unhurried place for new skiers and snowboarders to learn the basics and go it at their own pace. Dollar Mountain also has Sun Valley's expert terrain park, half pipe, and tube hill. The mountain has a perfect pitch, consistent vertical from its 9,150 ft. peak down to the 5,750 ft. base. No flats, no plateaus - all downhill on a variety of slopes rated to your liking and ability. The mountain offers 36% of their trails for beginners, 42% for intermediate & 22% of their trails are for the expert skiers, something for everyone!

So don't miss out on this fabulous trip! Come to the Fall Line meeting on July 18th with a check in hand of $400.00 (minus the $50 if you were forward thinking enough to pre-sign up in May) to reserve your spot. For more information check out Sun Valley's website: www.sunvalley.com

For questions concerning the trip please contact us @ 609-747-8582 or saradeb@comcast.net

FLSC Annual Mr. Chris Nast 3-hour Kayak Trip

Come out and enjoy a great day paddling on the Great Egg Harbor River.

We'll end at the outfitters (where the cars are parked), and relax on the patio, where food and "beverages of your choice" can be purchased. Come on out for a great time!

This trip will be cash-only, and pay on day of trip. Obviously, I will need an approximate head count about a week in advance to tell Palace Outfitters the number of boats we'll be renting. It is never "too late to sign up", but please either call or email me so I can add you to the head count. Also, the trip does not "sell out". My first year leading this trip, we had 54 kayaks! Please do not call me the morning of the trip and ask about "river conditions" or weather. I don't know any more than you. If you are "on the fence" about coming, I cannot help you - decide for yourself.

Children (accompanied by an adult) are welcome. All rented boats will get a life preserver float, although the depth of the river is usually only 3-4 feet in most areas.

FALL LINE SKI CLUB BOOK CLUB

Monday, July 105

The Taproom

427 Crystal Lake Ave

Haddonfield, NJ (Haddon Township)

(Meet in the smaller Fireplace Room)

7:30PM

The book for the month of July is Girl Unbroken by Regina Calcaterra and Rosie Maloney.

In the highly anticipated sequel to her New York Times bestseller Etched in Sand, Regina Calcaterra pairs with her youngest sister Rosie to tell Rosie's harrowing, yet ultimately triumphant, story of childhood abuse and survival.

They were five kids with five different fathers and an alcoholic mother who left them to fend for themselves for weeks at a time. Yet through it all they had each other. Rosie, the youngest, is fawned over and shielded by her older sister, Regina. Their mother, Cookie, blows in and out of their lives "like a hurricane, blind and uncaring to everything in her path."

But when Regina discloses the truth about her abusive mother to her social worker, she is separated from her younger siblings Norman and Rosie. And as Rosie discovers after Cookie kidnaps her from foster care, the one thing worse than being abandoned by her mother is living in Cookie's presence. Beaten physically, abused emotionally, and forced to labor at the farm where Cookie settles in Idaho, Rosie refuses to give in. Like her sister Regina, Rosie has an unfathomable strength in the face of unimaginable hardship—enough to propel her out of Idaho and out of a nightmare.

Filled with maturity and grace, Rosie's memoir continues the compelling story begun in Etched in Sand—a shocking yet profoundly moving testament to sisterhood and indomitable courage.

By Bob Kossay

Take me out to the Ball Game!!!

Ever want to go to a baseball game but dread dealing with the Philly or NYC traffic, paying high prices for parking, and only getting mediocre large stadium seating? Looking for something to do to get some fresh evening air after spending the day indoors with AC? Maybe you're coming back from the shore and are not quite ready to end the weekend yet. If any of this is true for you, now's your chance! Join us at Arm & Hammer Park, One Thunder Road, Trenton, NJ 08611, for an inexpensive outing in a relaxed atmosphere to watch the Trenton Thunder take on cross division rivals the Altoona Curve on Sunday, August 6, 2017. First pitch is at 5:00 pm. Park gates open at 4:00 pm.

The Trenton Thunder Minor League Baseball team is the Double-A affiliate of the New York Yankees. The Thunder plays in the Eastern Division of the Eastern League and finished in 2nd place last year. Meanwhile, the Altoona Curve, the Double-A affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates, plays in the Western Division of the Eastern League. This game should shake out to be a great match-up since Altoona also finished in 2nd place in their division last year! So, come on out and enjoy America's favorite past time with your fellow Fall Liners.
