Telluride, CO – Skier’s Dream Vacation

By Patty Shearer

On Saturday March 14th, our group headed off for our Skier’s Dream Vacation to Telluride. The flights and connections were smooth and we arrived at Montrose Airport to beautiful sunny skies. The same can’t be said for our ski bags (Thank You United), causing an unplanned 5-hour ‘chat’ with United that afternoon and evening. We had a representative from Telluride meet our group at the hotel to familiarize us with the area (skiing, eating, drinking, breweries, etc.). Around 11:00 pm, our ski bags arrived and we could now truly start our ski vacation.

We stayed at the Victorian Inn, a quaint hotel, one block from the Gondola which had a free breakfast. When you walked in, you could smell the fresh baked goods ... Yummy. The talk of the room was the machine that made fresh pancakes by simply pressing a button ... it’s the little things in life that make it special.

On Sunday, our group met for a Mountain Ski Tour at the summit. The guides did a fabulous job familiarizing us with the Mountain (especially the Revelation and Prospect Bowls) along with Telluride’s history. We had lunch at Gorrano Ranch, which featured fabulous BBQ enjoyed al fresco. After a full day of skiing, many of us met in the Jacuzzi to sooth our sore muscles in preparation for the evening’s festivities.

As we were staying in the city of Telluride, we simply walked to the many restaurants, taverns and stores. Since the Gondola to the Mountain Village closed at midnight we had to really watch our time. The ride back to Telluride on the Gondola was pitch black making it kind of scary, but the stars were very cool.

Monday, was another perfect day for skiing our hearts out on all types of terrain. Several of us had lunch at Bon Vivant, offering French cuisine with a 360° view of the San Juan Range. That evening, we had a group party at the Crazy Elk in Mountain Village. The servers were very accommodating and a good night was had by all. In typical Fall Line Ski Club fashion some of us headed over to the Tomboy Tavern for delicious drinks in a cool atmosphere.

Tuesday, I scheduled a photographer to meet everyone for the group photo. That afternoon, several of us had lunch at Alpino Vino which is just under 12,000 feet making it the highest elevation restaurant in North America. After skiing and since it was St. Patrick’s Day, a bar crawl was in order before having dinner, after which we met up with other Fall Liners and headed over to O’Banien’s Irish Pub, filled with very “colorful” locals.

On Wednesday, most of the group had taken off from skiing. Our day was filled with massages, shopping, visiting the Telluride Museum and local breweries. That evening, I had arranged for a happy hour / dinner at the rustic elegant Mountain Lodge which overlooked Telluride. Since it was snowing in March ... Hello – there was no Alpenglow (redish/pink light) to look at but we were

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi Everyone!

Finally we have been able to plant our flowers!! I love our ski season and hopefully lots of snow where we travel to, but the spring and summer seasons are most welcome. Keep in mind that in our off-season we have many wonderful social events planned to be able to gather together with your fellow Fall Liners. Bring a friend. You don't have to be a club member to join in on the social activities. Check out the website and the blasts to make plans to join in on some of the fun. Don't forget to "like" us on FaceBook to see and share your pictures as well as hear about the latest events.

I want to thank everyone who attended the Spring Fling and/or Steve Archibald's 1st annual golf outing. Both of these events were well attended. Nona put together a lovely night of game shows, dancing and delicious food for us. Patty and the committee worked very hard to present a most wonderful tribute to Steve and having everyone gather to do what he loved to do. If you missed either one of these events this year, plan to come on out next year! I also want to thank all of you who voted in the elections this year. It was a wonderful turnout.

Enjoy this wonderful weather and start looking over the ski trip schedules for next year and be prepared to sign up when the trips open. It is really a great schedule.

Chris Vitale

1st Annual Steve Archibald Memorial Golf Outing

By Patty Shearer

Several months ago I had an idea to organize a golf outing in memory of our friend, Steve Archibald, who had passed away in November 2014. It has been a labor of love to see this event to fruition and I was heart warmed at the outpouring of sponsorship and golfers that came out to honor Steve. I would like to give a huge thanks to Nona Luce and Gilah Respes for their help in organizing this event. Lisa Rovens added the personal touches of bringing Steve's presence to the event. I want to also thank Brian Feldschneider, the golf professional from Golden Pheasant Golf Club. A majority of the proceeds will go to PAWS (the Philadelphia Animal Welfare Society), which was Steve's favorite charity.

The Registration area was abuzz as everyone started arriving at 11:00 am to register and get setup in their golf cart. Thank you to Sara Walls, Chris Vitale, Marianne Sladzinski and Deb Taraska for assisting in the Registration area / goodie bag & cigar giveaway. And thanks to John Steel who had to take one for the team by manning the Beer Station (LOL). Also, thank you to Joe Durkin for manning the Putting Contest, which Keith Halterman won, and for putting out the hole signs.

At 12:40 pm we had a ceremonial cigar lighting in tribute to Steve, which was captured in a group photo. Steve's brother, Jim, thanked everyone for coming out and also reminded everyone to have a good day and to get a Colonoscopy.

We would like to express our thanks to Stu Gillard who volunteered his time as our official photographer for the day. Stu and Nona Luce took pictures of all of the foursomes as they played on the course. Nona Luce emailed the photos to each of the players as a memento.

At 1:00 pm, 72 golfers hit the course for a beautiful afternoon of golf. The weather was gorgeous despite a few sprinkles later in the day. There was even a fly over of three airplanes in formation which was very cool. A little known fact is that Steve had his pilot's license, what a fitting tribute that was never planned. I wish I could have taken credit for that ... could that have been Steve saying hello?

After golf we all headed upstairs for a delicious BBQ Dinner where everyone socialized and awards were given out.

- * Longest Drive – Steve Viola
- * Closest to Pin – Drew Kenney
- * Lowest Net Score:
- * 1st Place – James Olt, Michael Forbeck, Carol Forbeck, Kathy Gaskill
- * 2nd Place – Nick Manari, Joseph Battaglia, George Abersold, Nem Urubshurov
- * 3rd Place – Dr. Glat's foursome
- * Best Outfits: Male – Karl Pusch; Female – Patty Shearer

Ladies Cigar Salute to Steve

Many thanks to Tony Robideau, as our MC, and Laura Wirtschaffer, as his assistant, for raffling off several auction items along with a 50/50.

Our First Annual Steve Archibald Memorial Golf Outing of 2015 was a huge success.

SATE THE DATE: We are having this event again on Saturday, May 7, 2016 (which is Steve's actual birthday). Hope to see all the players

From 5-7pm

Harvest Seasonal Grill and Wine Bar offers an under 500 calorie seasonally changing, local farm to table menu, 50+ wines by the glass, seasonal cocktails and local beer. Every three months Harvest Seasonal Grill and Wine Bar changes the menu to reflect the change of the seasons. Harvest Seasonal Grill and Wine Bar works with 75 local farmers to source the freshest and highest quality products available.

At Harvest Seasonal Grill and Wine Bar the use of sustainable, organic and healthy ingredients doesn't stop with the menu. From the organic cleaning products, to the recycled glass bar tops, the recycled paper products to the ink in their menus, they are a truly green concept.

Dave Magrogan created Harvest Seasonal Grill and Wine Bar to fill the need for a high quality, farm fresh menu created with the healthiest ingredients local farmers and purveyors had to offer. He was striving to provide a quality experience for active, discerning families who have become increasingly educated in food and very health conscious. With the help of David Steiger and Chef David Walti the first Harvest Seasonal Grill and Wine Bar in Glen Mills, Pa opened in 2010 and has been an incredible success.

At Harvest Seasonal Grill and Wine Bar guests will enjoy seasonally inspired steak, poultry, seafood and vegetarian dishes prepared with local and organic foods in a casual but upscale environment. The seasonally changing wine, specialty cocktail and beer list compliments the dining experience.

ATCO TO MARGATE BIKE RIDE 2015

By John Kennedy

Mark June 6 on your calendar as Fall Line makes its annual trek to the shore. This is a leisurely ride (average speed 12-15 mph, but go at your own pace) to Maynard's Café, at 9306 Amherst Ave, in Margate, NJ. It's about 55 miles and is a great training ride for those contemplating the ACS (which is the following weekend) and MS-150 rides in October. We start at the NJ Transit station in

Atco. The parking lot is off of the northbound lanes of Route 73. We begin to arrive around 8 AM for an 8:30 departure. The route goes out Jackson

Road to Atsion Rd., down 206, into Hammonton, through scenic Mays Landing past Lake Lenape, Egg Harbor Township, Somers Point, and crosses 2 bridges into Longport before the final push up to Margate. Along the way, we'll stop for breakfast in Hammonton, a quick beverage at Testa's in Mays Landing and maybe a stop at Dairy Queen in Somers Point. Directions are provided. We hope to have a support vehicle (calling John Steel!! We would be delighted with your presence once again!) for those who decide to take the easy way down. I will ask for a donation from the cyclists to compensate our support drivers for backing us up.

For the trip home, we continue biking up to the Atlantic City rail station at the Convention Center. Cost to return to Atco with your bike is about $5.00. The trip is asphalt all the way, although most of the riding will be on the shoulders so it may not be all that smooth. I'd like a head count, so if you're interested, please dust off your bikes, pump your tires, and e-mail me at johnkennedy0880@comcast.net

BEN FRANKLIN BRIDGE WALK

By Dave Lummis

How far would you walk for a great brunch? On Saturday morning, June 20, join us for our second annual walk across the Ben Franklin Bridge and on to the Red Owl Tavern at Independence Mall. Come join us for a little exercise and a great meal. The pedestrian walkway on the bridge offers a unique and beautiful view of both Camden and Philadelphia.

We will meet at 9:30 am at Parking Lot 2 of Rutgers-Camden, at Fifth and Penn Streets. We will then enjoy a nice leisurely two mile walk across the bridge and down to Independence Mall and the Red Owl Tavern. After our brunch, we will walk back across the bridge. If you want, stay a while longer to stroll around Independence Mall.

Reservations are required for the brunch so I'll need a head count no later than June 13th. Please be considerate and email Dave Lummis at dlummis@ignarrillumis.com to make your brunch reservation. The cost of brunch is on your own.
