POWDER EXPRESS

FALL LINE

Vail January 22nd through 29th

By Sara Walls and Deb Taraska

We arrived in Denver without incident until the airline lost Doug W's boot bag. While we waited for the airline to help Doug out we had a chance to meet a few new members to the club. Ally L, Dana W and Tabby met us from Florida while their friend Dee H flew in from North Carolina to join the group. The lost luggage helped create a delay so Bob K, flying in from Florida had enough time to join the group and catch the bus to the resort. Doug is not saying how much he had to pay the airline to lose his luggage so his buddy could catch up with us.

Upon arrival, we were met not only by Ken H but, Dave Z and Glenn M were also there for the weekend. After everyone got settled in we headed downstairs for a wine and cheese reception. While no one from the mountain made it to the reception we were lucky enough to have another New Jersey area club staying at the Evergreen the same time. This joint party was a great way to meet new people from our area.

We were lucky to have the daily breakfast plan included in our trip. The hot breakfast not only fueled everyone up for the long days on the slopes but, also allowed everyone a place to meet to plan their day. If you were unable to meet up with Fall Liners at breakfast or on the Mountain, there was always the hot tub at the hotel. It was quite the popular hangout spot, as it sat up to 30 folks, and BYO was permitted. Also, the Hotel Lobby, was a great place to sit and chat.

Vail never fails to have excellent conditions! The snow from Sunday through Tuesday only enhanced the awesome terrain. Unfortunately, the snow also brought clouds and less than stellar visibility which meant everyone needed to stay low or hit the tree runs. While Wednesday was the coldest day of the week the sun was shining, a great time to hit the bowls for unparalleled west coast skiing.

Later in the week, we were joined by Mindy M along with fellow Fall Liners turned Colorado ski bums Wendy & Earl. They drove over on Tuesday to ski with Deb S and Chris N and to hang out that night with the group. They picked a good night to stay as the hotel bar (a local favorite) named Altitude had their wing night. If you ever go make sure you try their "awesome sauce". They mix all the sauces together for major heat and great flavor. The Altitude bar also had a special for a burger and beer for only $12.00 plus yummy tacos on Thursday.

If you wanted to try something different, our hotel also offered an Indian Restaurant. You could try anything on their menu with your desired heat level. If you ventured off property you could hit Bart & Yeti's for some good bar food in a dog friendly atmosphere. Another favorite hangout for après' was The George and Garfinkel's. For some phenomenal Austrian food try Pepi's. The Florida/North Carolina crew hits this place every time they are in Vail. A group of us went there for dinner and totally understand the appeal.

First time skier Mike G (who thought one day at Blue Mountain would make him an expert) was skiing awesome by the end of the week. Look for him as future "Mayor" of some city as, he talked the instructors into a week of free lessons, and an afternoon lesson for Tamika M, Unheard of!!

The week ended too soon but, fortunately there were no injuries. We arrived home without incident except, however thanks to the protesters at the Philadelphia airport, we were delayed at least one hour from being picked up as the protesters blocked the way.

As always, I need to thank Ken K & Paul A since they consistently help load and unload the bus along with all members that help make this a great trip.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Fall Liners and Friends,

What an incredible ski season we are having! Deb and Sara's Vail trip was the best ever. Mike Houlihan reported his Park City trip was a roaring success with epic snow and powder skiing. Can you stand it! Trips to Chamonix and Revelstoke-Kicking Horse are coming up. We can't wait to hear everyone's skiing and fun. These events have all sold out due to the overwhelming enthusiasm for skiing with our wonderful club. I sincerely hope you were able to get on one of this season's ski trips. They are having the best snow in years. Thank you, Winter Trip Committee, for the amazing job you did to create a ski season to remember.

Spring is just around the corner and we turn our thoughts to our annual Spring Fling celebration. We are holding our party at Indian Springs Marco's Restaurant on Saturday, April 29th. There will be food, drink, music, dancing, raffles, and lots of fun. Put this event on your calendar and join us in toasting the end of a successful ski season for Fall Line Ski Club.

The Board has had a great time behind the scenes this year. We have an energetic and enthusiastic group of people who get together once a month to help work on ski club events and issues we face as we go forward into this next year. There are a few board positions coming open for election, and I'd like to invite you to put your name in the hat to become a Fall Line Board member. Our elections are at the April Meeting and each year we elect a Pres-Elect, Treasurer-Elect, three 2-year board members and this year we are looking for a Secretary. If you have talent, great ideas, and most of all, love for our awesome ski club. Join us in continuing the legacy that has made us one of the best ski clubs in the region. Talk to any board member and email Janice Lynch at jml@sicnj.net by March 12th to get your name on the ballot in the April Newsletter.

Happy St. Patrick's Day,

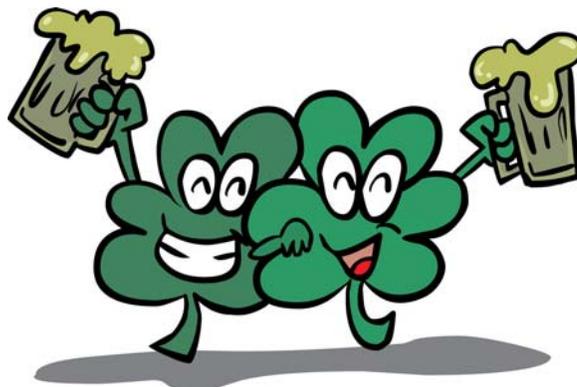

Susan

PARK CITY 2017

By Mike Houlihan

Saturday, February 4th kicked off Fall Line Ski Club's Park City Mountain Resort trip to the powder of Utah. Most of the 24 members arrived at Salt Lake City in the late morning. Ann Marsteller was a key mentor to Trip Leader Michael Houlihan, making this a legendary event (in my humble opinion). Winding our way up into the Wasatch Mountains, we experienced beautiful sights as I got to know my van mates: Moira Poper, Rich Shiffer & Inwan "Bruce" Kim. While our rooms at The Park Station Condo Hotel may have not been ready for occupancy, everyone was eager to scatter among historic Park City. The condo buildings surround a heated outdoor pool and large hot tub is literally right in the middle of Old Park City allowing easy access to all the bars, restaurants, ski shops and the slopes. Later as the day progressed the remainder of Fall Line members trickled in from Salt Lake. Arriving late were a gang of my NY Friends, including Kieran Farrell & Chris Helms. Sunday we hit the slopes, with most of us enjoying a 1 block walk to the Town Lift. I saw Ann, Deb Serba & Judy Ward in full ski gear ready to head into the mountain. That first day was beautiful & pleasant with quite a bit of sun. With Park City & The Canyons being so massive, most I spoke with stayed on the Park City side content to ski under the three 6-Pack lifts: Bonanza Express, PayDay Express or Silverlode Express. The Team Leader hosted a Super Bowl party that nearly blew the roof off with Lady Gaga's performance. Patty Shearer & Marianne Sladzinski (out on her own) accompanied Lady Gaga as they knew all the words and weren't afraid to sing loudly! New England's win caused the room to clear quickly around 8:30pm. A good time to jump in the hot tub before closing.

On Monday Peter Dolan, Steve Kahrs, Hugh MacFadyen, Kieran, Chris & myself headed to Deer Valley. Overnight approx. 12" to 16" of new snow fell making Deer Valley one of the best ski days that week. Hugh had rented a huge Toyota Sequoia which fit 6 guys with equipment. We did experience attendants helping unload our skis from the car! Flagstaff & Bald Mountains is where we focused skiing all day. At the end of the day, with lift attendants stopping us from taking another run, we, of course, ran into Fall Line Skiers enjoying Apres Drinks at the Snow Park Lodge. Amongst the group were Dave Orr, Tracee Bachman, Diane Angelos & Sandy Geist. A few martini glasses were in evidence! These Fall Liners know how to have a good time.

Tuesday the 7th ended with the entire group getting together at Legends Bar & Grill at the base of Park City. Adding to the challenge that day were massively windy conditions that caused 75% of the lifts to close in the afternoon. My group of 6 skiers had no choice but to take a shuttle from the Canyons base back to Park City along with many other displaced skiers. Most of the Group started the happy hour ahead of their Team Leader, which I readily embraced. Looking quite happy were the father & son team, Roy & Stephen Canzanese and one table over was Donna Russo, Tracee, Diane & Sandy. We all had stories of a windy but exciting day. I got to ride my first Cabriolet Chair going from the Canyons base to the Shuttle pick-up. The views through this region are like being on a post card - everywhere you look is breathtaking vistas.

During the rest of the week mother nature decided to warm things up. Wednesday & Thursday were searching for dry snow as slushy conditions were the result of the warm up. Lunch spots were outside on the many mid-mountain lodges decks and patios. Towards the later part of Thursday I took a few pictures of 3 fellas lounging on Adirondacks at the Miners Camp Lodge: Steve Beach, Barry Schofield & Dave Orr. All three were in perfect position to catch the rays and the views of Jupiter Bowl at 10,026'.

Most of us had planned on making Friday their off day. It was a fortunate thing as rain greeted us in the morning and through most of the day. My group headed to the Utah Olympic Park just below The Canyons. There we learned the history of the area, Olympics 2002 and how & why Utah snow is so dry & famous. A rewarding experience, further etched in our minds seeing two enormous moose on the way down from the Olympic Park.

As we waited in the gate to leave Utah, Linda & Dan Herman, regaled me with some of their stories from the week. Even with Moria's injury everyone had a very good time enjoying each other's company the skiing and the gifts of Park City. A trip, my first, I will remember as a great success. And I can't wait to go back!

New Book: City of Women by David R. Gillham

It is 1943 - the height of the Second World War. With the men taken by the army, Berlin has become a city of women. And while her husband fights on the Eastern Front, Sigrid Schröder is, for all intents and purposes, the model soldier's wife: She goes to work every day, does as much with her rations as she can, and dutifully cares for her meddling mother-in-law, all the while ignoring the horrific immoralities of the regime.

But behind this façade is an entirely different Sigrid, a woman who dreams of her former Jewish lover, who is now lost in the chaos of the war.

Sigrid's tedious existence is turned upside down when she finds herself hiding a mother and her two young daughters - whom she believes might be her lover's family - and she must make terrifying choices that could cost her everything.
