

FALL LINE POWDER EXPRESS

Park City, Utah March 1st through March 8th

By Sara Walls

On Sunday March 1st 31, lucky people boarded the plane to head to Park City, Utah. I say lucky because while the area was in a drought we had Colleen F. on our trip, and she is a professional "snow dancer" who can bring snow to any area. Over the years she has learned how to control her "dance" so that we get the snow at the resort and not at home. She started the minute we landed and it started snowing that night. Great job Colleen!!

Our condos weren't quite ready for us but since Ken H. had arrived early on his own, his condo was ready which he graciously opened for anyone needing a place to hang out while they waited for their condo to be ready. Thanks Ken. Some people chose to walk around town, grab a bite to eat and get familiar with the area. After arriving at the condo and getting settled, a few of us walked up the hill to Wasatch Brew Pub for a light bite to eat and watch the snow fall before getting a good night sleep for the real reason we came out... SKIING

Monday we all awoke to continued snowing and hit the slopes. We were staying at Park Station Condos which was a short walk to the town lift. At the bottom of that lift was a great little restaurant which many stopped at for a quick breakfast before taking the lift to the fun. It continued snowing all day so each trail was awesome. You could find the steeps and bumps or the newly groomed trails to speed away. This mountain truly has something for everyone.

There were two places that everyone loved. Collies Sports bar had great burgers along with many other choices, or at the base of the town lift was The Cabin. While The Cabin did not serve food many places around would deliver a meal there for your enjoyment. What made The Cabin great - (aside from their special Bloody Mary) the bartenders, Sasquatch & Yeti were fabulous. They even created a new drink for Tamika McCoy which she named "The Real McCoy" and it was amazing. I am sure she will share the recipe with you, but to get the real thing you will have to join Fall Line next time we are headed to Park City and actually pay your respects to the mountain at The Cabin and ask Sasquatch to make it for you.

After a hard day of skiing on Monday Chris V, Sandy G & Tamika M held a happy hour at their condo. A great time was had by all as we shared our stories and swapped favorite trail names to make sure we were getting the most out of the mountain. If you truly wanted to get the most out of your ski day stick with Ken H. who is said to have hit 25 trails before lunch. Colleen F.'s dance was still going strong and we had more powder on Tuesday and Wednesday. A total of 20 inches of snow ensured that every trail was opened. Many went to the Silver Spur on Tuesday, for drink, wings and burger specials.

Wednesday night we all met up at No Name Saloon for the midweek party, and a great time was had by all. We were in the upstairs bar area that had an outside deck. Ken H, Jane G, Doug M, Fran D & Craig D all went to Alta that day and skied so hard that Ken, Jane & Doug were too wiped out to join us. You guys missed a good time. But,

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi Everyone!

Well, I just wanted to thank all of you who voted in our elections and because of your input we will be starting this New Year with a most fantastic board! I want to thank our outgoing board members for their dedication over the past several years to support our club. As you know, these are voluntary type positions and those who serve give up much of their time to make this club better for YOU, THE MEMBERS.

Please start looking at our social calendar now as Nona has planned some wonderful events to keep us all connected through the off-ski season months. Come out and mingle with us at our happy hours that Jeannie plans for us each Friday. Let's make Steve Archibald's golf event in May a huge tribute in his memory. I don't even golf and I am definitely going to honor Steve and his huge contribution to Fall Line Ski Club over the years. Also, please take time to come to our Mixer Meetings at Pennsauken Country Club. The staff there has been very accommodating to the club to prepare specials for dinner before the meeting with our fabulous server, Jessica. You can come out and get specials prices as a FLSC member for your dinner and drinks.

I also want to thank all the members for their wonderful response to our email weekend trip survey. The Winter Trip Committee and the Board appreciates those that took the time to fill it out for us. It is important to hear what you have to say. If you have any ideas of how to make this club better please see me or the board members at any meeting.

Thank you, everyone, for listening and I hope to see all of you soon.

Chris

ATCO TO MARGATE BIKE RIDE 2015

By John Kennedy

Mark June 6 on your calendar as Fall Line makes its annual trek to the shore. This is a leisurely ride (average speed 12-15 mph, but go at your own pace) to Maynard's Café, at 9306 Amherst Ave, in Margate, NJ. It's about 55 miles and is a great training ride for those contemplating the ACS (which is the following weekend) and MS-150 rides in October. We start at the NJ Transit station in

Atco. The parking lot is off of the northbound lanes of Route 73. We begin to arrive around 8 AM for an 8:30 departure. The route goes out Jackson

Road to Atsion Rd., down 206, into Hammonton, through scenic Mays Landing past Lake Lenape, Egg Harbor Township, Somers Point, and crosses 2 bridges into Longport before the final push up to Margate. Along the way, we'll stop for breakfast in Hammonton, a quick beverage at Testa's in Mays Landing and maybe a stop at Dairy Queen in Somers Point. Directions are provided. We hope to have a support vehicle (calling John Steel!! We would be delighted with your presence once again!) for those who decide to take the easy way down. I will ask for a donation from the cyclists to compensate our support drivers for backing us up.

For the trip home, we continue biking up to the Atlantic City rail station at the Convention Center. Cost to return to Atco with your bike is about $5.00. The trip is asphalt all the way, although most of the riding will be on the shoulders so it may not be all that smooth. I'd like a head count, so if you're interested, please dust off your bikes, pump your tires, and e-mail me at johnkennedy0880@comcast.net then again you got to Ski Alta, way to go!

Thursday brought blue skies with plenty of sunshine which was a great day to head over to the Canyons. After a day of skiing we all met at Murdock's for a happy hour. Vail Resorts kicked in a little something to help pay for the happy hour.

Friday was another blue ski day where many headed over to Deer Valley. Not only is Deer Valley famous for their groomed trails but, they are one of the few places that does not allow snow boarders. Not sure which one I prefer but, for those two reasons Deer Valley is one of my favorite mountains. Some found another reason to love

Deer Valley, the $18.00 Bloody Mary at St Regis hotel. That night a group started at The Cabin. Many stayed but some walked over to Collies for a bite to eat.

After a long day of skiing on Saturday, everyone was sad that it would be our last day so we headed to High West Distillery to partake in their famous batch of vodka drinks and some wonderful food. Laura K, Bob A, and condo mates Franklin C & Scott S held a "clean out the condo" party. To make things interesting they planned a scavenger hunt. The winners were Fran D, Craig D, Harry S & George M getting all items on the hunt. Way to go guys!!

I think this was one of my top favorite ski trips. Aside from the accommodations and conditions we had a fabulous group of people who made it even more enjoyable. I hope all that made this trip and many that didn't will be on the next adventure. As of the reading of this article the winter trip committee has already put together next year's trips. Hope you will be on one with me! I would like to thank everyone who helped load & unload the bus especially Bob A. I would also like to thank Ken H & Marianne S for shuttling people around that was a big help!

On a side note, please join Deb & I for a pub crawl on

WESTMONT PUB CRAWL SATURDAY, MAY 2ND AT 1 PM

Normally we request you to pray to the snow gods for up coming outings but we've had a long, cold winter so on May 2nd we are hoping for warm sunshine as we make our way in Westmont for an afternoon pub crawl. Of course, rain will not stop us!

We will meet at PJ Whelihan's at 1pm to taste a few brews before taking a two-minute walk to the Irish Mile. From there it is only a nine-minute walk to the Pour House. The Keg and Kitchen is just a short two minutes away. We are looking to end our tour at Brewsters where there is music and a pool table.

Close to Brewsters and across the street is free parking. We plan to park there and walk down to PJ Whelihan's so our car will be where we will end. Parking is also at the Westmont PATCO High Speed Line station or you can take the train to Westmont to avoid driving.

Every place we are going to has good food selections along with beers so we can grab a bite to eat to start and dinner to finish.

This is an on your own event but please let us know if you are coming so we can keep an eye out for you. Hope you can join us.

LAKE TAHOE – ESCAPE FROM THE BIG CHILL...

By Jeff Stein

Think back to February of this year when the east coast was in the big chill and the snow machine was just hanging out over Boston. Perhaps the best place to be was out west, way out west like California.

And on Saturday, February 7 at 6:55 AM, that is exactly what a sharp group of Fall Line skiers did as they departed the chills of Philadelphia for a fabulous ski week at Heavenly in Lake Tahoe, California. The ride on that Saturday Southwest flight was a bit bumpy as we made our way into Reno, Nevada via warm Las Vegas. If you are traveling that distance to an “almost” there airport, and have two hours to kill until your next flight, no doubt, Las Vegas is the hotspot to do this.

Visiting the “Strip”...

Although our visit to the “strip” was in the form of a “flyby” nonetheless we were greeted by banks of slot machines in the terminals at Las Vegas’ McCarran International Airport. It was an ideal opportunity to try your luck at “earning” a rebate on the cost of that week’s trip. If we did have a few winners that day, they were mum about winning.

Spring was Waiting for Us...

Just after 11:30 AM we were taking off from the “strip” for a much smoother and shorter flight into Reno. It was before 1:00 PM that we arrived in the mild temperatures of Reno. By now we had plenty of time to forget about the winter on the east coast and begin acclimating to spring in February out in the far west. And, now being on west coast time, with that three-hour time difference, time surely was on our side.

Hello Lake Tahoe, California, But it is Looking Brown Downtown...

We loaded up the shuttle with all of our gear for the 90-minute ride into Lake Tahoe, Nevada / California. But the ride was a bit concerning as we observed zero traces of the stuff that skiers come in search of...SNOW. And, as we entered Lake Tahoe it was not looking very encouraging. It was not just brown, but wet with rain. Well at least on the plus side; the temperatures were very mild for early February.

A Suite Week Ahead...

The weather did not discourage this group of Fall Liners as we checked in to our digs for the week. Just if by chance had it ended up being a lousy ski week, we had some rather luxurious lodging at the all suites Lake Tahoe Resort Hotel. Located smack in the center of Tahoe, on the California side, we were just a stone’s toss from Nevada’s smoke-filled casinos and just five minutes from the Heavenly gondola.

It did not take too long for the group’s adjustment to the daily complimentary full cooked breakfast or afternoon free happy hour drinks and snacks in the light-filled atrium. And, had our arrival weather foreshadowed a limited ski week, that indoor pool and hot tub would also help in easing any frustrations.

At 4:30 PM on Saturday we had our first “introduction” to the regular happy hours and the start of body conditioning to our allotment of a complete “have anything that you would like to drink” bar. This introduction was followed by our orientation hosted by a Heavenly mountain representative.

From the rep’s pep talk, it was becoming clear that we could not judge a mountain by the outside weather at 6,400’ when at that level we could not even begin to view the top of the gondola at over 9,000’ or see the summit’s 10,000’ peak. With excitement, the group rested up for Sunday’s 9:30 AM gondola ride and special mountain tour.

Sunday’s Mountain Meeting and Weather Interruptions...

When we looked outside on Sunday morning, the views were rather contrasting. At ground level it surely was brown out there and not too inviting for skiing. However, the views of the surrounding mountain ranges depicted quite a different story. The snow-capped ranges were foreshadowing quite a different story neatly blended into the bright blue sunlit sky.

Fall Liners loaded into the gondola for the 2-½ mile ride up to Heavenly’s Tamarack base area for a meeting of sorts. At 9,000’ we were meeting both the mountain and some fresh snow in almost spring conditions. The calendar was showing early February, but the mountain was showing late March temperatures and conditions.

Our special mountain tour with the group reps was suppose to show us the best of what Heavenly had to offer. As the weather started changing quickly, those clear sunny vistas and calm conditions were becoming memories. Now nature was starting to show some of what it had to offer.

Stormy Side of Nature...

It was early February, but now the high winds, snow,

Lake Tahoe Resort Hotel Atrium

rain and warnings of lightning storms were occurring. As threats of shutdowns to the gondola and major lifts were pending, the experienced mountain guides were working hard to provide us with alternative routes in an effort to continue our group tours.

Some of the guides were able to stretch the tour into the California side of Heavenly, but the luck was starting to run out. The rain was prevailing, lightning storms were on the horizon, and at 1:00 PM we were “politely” evicted from skiing at Heavenly as the mountain was closed. But back East we heard, New England was getting blanketed with snow as the Pacific was being pelted by rain.

Fall Liners Making the Best of It...

Realizing that the weather was beyond their control, the Fall Liners saw this afternoon break as an opportunity to get an early start on shopping and relaxation. It would just be a few hours before then next happy hour and some extra party food from the welcome reception.

Getting Our Rewards + A Party...

On Monday, the inconvenience of being booted from the mountain Sunday was about to be rewarded. It was another day of very mild temperatures and rain at town level. But all we needed to do was hop into the gondola for our ride up to the 9,000' level to find over 8" of fresh powder along some spectacular vistas of Lake Tahoe. The group had a very good day out on the slopes.

Later that day, following our “regular” gathering for happy hours, it was time for Fall Line’s club party. We convened at the Straw Hat Pizza eatery located in a neighboring casino. It was time for more socializing and checking notes on the group’s ski day over drinks and a plethora of food. But a trip through a casino would never be complete without trying one’s luck on the “equipment.” For one lucky couple their small investment in a slot machine paid off with a return in excess of $100. It was like getting paid to take a ski vacation.

Why Ski at Just One Resort When You Can Hit Three?

A benefit of our great ski week at Heavenly was that we had the options of enjoying two other top ski resorts – Kirkwood and Northstar. And when you combine all three destinations for a total of more than 10,000 acres, to some degree, we were able to ski an area nearly twice the size of Vail. During the week the Fall Liners took excursions to both of these areas.

Having some more expert runs, and lacking the full village footprint, Kirkwood is a bit like skiing at Colorado’s Arapahoe Basin (“A-Basin”). Except that it is about 2-1/2 times larger. A-Basin has the East Wall and Kirkwood has The Wall.

Rated as a “double expert” from its 9,400’ peak and a narrow cornice entrance, The Wall emptied into some rather nice bowl skiing. Wide open and under those early spring conditions and a brightly lit blue sunny sky, the Kirkwood experience was one not to be missed.

For a different type of variety, and perhaps a bit more relaxing, our Northstar excursion also was one not to be missed. With its village shops, outdoor ice rink, eateries and village hotels, Northstar had that flavor of being at Beaver Creek, Colorado. But the Northstar mountain footprint offers more than twice the amount of skiable acres. For all the mild temperatures and early thaw conditions, more than 90% of Northstar was open. It was just another sunny day in paradise for the Fall Liners.

And The Week Just Kept Getting Better...

For the balance of our week, as the east coast and the Boston area continued to deal the big chill and more precipitation, our weather and conditions were just heavenly for early February. By Friday, spring skiing was in full bloom as Tahoe town temps teetered in the 60’s. On the mountain it was warm enough that clothing really became optional. Although some of the guy skiers were just out there in skins, it was the “Cali-gal” outfits that were catching a few eyes. All of those “outfits” had to be outdone by that gal skiing on Heavenly’s California slopes wearing just that bikini. But, she appeared to be well protected with that helmet.

Packing it in and Packing it up...

Friday afternoon seemed to come quickly and this group’s week at Lake Tahoe was drawing to a close. But, of course it would not be complete without our daily happy hour in the brightly lit hotel atrium. It was a time for more bonding, smiles, laughter and reflections over more drinks and snacks.

Saturday morning, after one last breakfast buffet, we loaded into our tightly luggage-packed shuttle for the 90-minute trip to the Reno-Tahoe International Airport. It was just another sunny, blue sky mild “spring” day in February as the Fall Liners awaited to board a Southwest flight back to Philadelphia after one more pass through Las Vegas.

But We Did Arrive - Didn’t We?

It was a long travel day by the time that we returned to a frigid, snowy Philadelphia. By 9:45 PM we were at the gate at PHL and anxious to “deplane”. As we all know, if you safely made it this far, the next step is a walk in the park as the exit procedure is rather simple. But that was not going to be on this night.

The outside weather was enough of a factor that the Jetway could not be moved and we could not be off-loaded. The fix was to move the plane one gate to the right. As passengers were standing and beginning to remove items from the overhead, we now had to sit down and prepare for takeoff as the aircraft was being towed just to the next gate. Because we all wanted to just get home, this delay probably took about 25 minutes, but felt much longer. Our ski week at Lake Tahoe now became one of fond memories.

I would like to extend a special thanks to everyone on the trip for making my job fun and easy.

By now you should have gotten in your mail box your Fall Line Ski Club pre-printed membership application. All you have to do is check the information to make sure it is still current; then either mail your application (instructions on application) or bring your application to the next mixer meeting with your check for $25.00 and your membership will be renewed for 2015-16 year beginning May 1, 2015. If you wait until September the price goes up.
