PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello My Fellow Fall Liners,

I can't believe November is here already, but what a wonderful fall we are all experiencing! Being able to have the air conditioner off and sleeping with our windows open and wrapped in blankets is the best. All right, let's get to business. Trip signups are in full steam and there are openings on the fantastic trips the Winter Trip Committee has put together. So, come on out and sign up.

Also, I have asked Danzeisen & Quigley to do a fashion show for us at our Mixer Meeting on November 17th. Gretchen has agreed to do it with her protégé, Amy, as Gretchen will be retiring after the ski buying season. I would hope all of you that have known Gretchen Quigley over the years will come out and wish her well. She has been my personal friend for many years and has been a big part of the ski business in our area since I married their partner, Joe Vitale, in '79 and for many years before that. I think Danzeisen started out on Black Horse Pike. Bill and Gretchen Quigley have attended many parties for Fall Line and donated mucho merchandise for our many events. Anyone who would like to volunteer to be a model, please contact me at saabnomore@live.com. We will need three males and three females.

The November general meeting is your chance to sign up for the Fall Line holiday party. We are holding it earlier this year on Friday December 7th. Buy a ticket and come join the fun.

FYI, any time any one of you would like to speak to your board, which meets the 2nd Tuesday of each month, please just contact me at saabnomore@live.com or at 609-410-6156 with your topic. We as the board are open to your comments at any time. Please help us to be a better club for you.

Before I end I wish all of you a most Happy Thanksgiving with all of your families!

Chris

Killington 2016

By: John Moffatt

Fall Line is going to Killington, Vermont on the week-end of January 8-10. Killington has 155 trails, 22 lifts including two 8-passenger gondolas, and 1,509 acres extending across six interconnected mountain peaks. Killington averages 250 inches of natural snow each winter and has a snowmaking system that covers 71% of the trails. The main peak, Killington Peak, has the second greatest vertical drop in the east (3,050 ft.). Ski trails are 28% beginner, 33% intermediate and 39% expert. Personal favorites include Devil's Fiddle, Outer Limits, Cascade, Lower Ovation, and Superstar. Beginners should give Juggernaut a try. It's the longest trail in the eastern U.S. at 6.2-miles. Intermediate skiers should head over to the glades for some less crowded skiing. There are also five snowboard and alpine parks.

Relax for lunch at the Roaring Brook Umbrella Bar near the Superstar Quad, or enjoy the fantastic views at Killington's new Peak Lodge. Lifts stop running at 4:30. You can finish the day at the K-1 Lodge, listen to live music, and enjoy a Long Trail, Otter Creek or a Magic Hat.

We will be staying at the Killington Mountain Lodge (formerly the Inn of the Six Mountains), right on the access road. The Lodge has recently been purchased and is undergoing extensive renovations (rooms, beds, carpeting, TVs, kitchen, pool, hot tub, lobby, etc.) by the new owners. There is a great complimentary hot buffet breakfast each morning. Wireless internet in public areas and complimentary computer use in the lobby. Cedars Restaurant is located in the Lodge. The Lodge provides complimentary shuttle service right to the mountain.

Night life at Killington is awesome. There are shuttles running up and down the access roads to all the other hotels, bars and restaurants. Looking for some good food, head out to The Foundry (formerly the Grist Mill), the Wobbly Barn Steakhouse, Santa Fe Steakhouse, or Choices Restaurant. Stop by the Lookout Bar & Grill, Mogul's Sports Pub, or Jax for some typical bar food. Charity's, Garlic, Baja Burrito, or Sushi Yoshi are also good choices. I've eaten in all of them. After a night of partying you may want to head over to the Outback for some pizza and live music.

The trip includes round trip motor coach from Mt. Laurel to Killington with beer, wine, and soda included, 2 nights lodging at The Inn (double occupancy), and 2-day lift ticket. Killington opens on September 15 at the early sign-up price of $389.

John Moffatt will be your trip leader. John can be reached at moffattjohn@yahoo.com or 856-357-2442.

Meeting Time: 2:00PM

Beer-Garden Atmosphere in Philadelphia

We met there last year and had a great afternoon with German Beer on tap & German Food. Let's do it again....

Please RSVP by Nov 20th. It gets crowded and tables are hard to save, so I will only hold spots for people who have let me know they are coming AND arrive between 2:00pm and 2:30pm. Marion Rosener (856) 904-5565 or email: Rosenermar@aol.com

Frankford Hall

Fishtown, 1210 Frankford Avenue. Located in the heart of Fishtown, Frankford Hall is probably the most authentic-feeling beer garden in town, with indoor and outdoor seating for more than 400, multiple bars, an abundance of picnic tables, and games ranging from Jenga to ping pong. Effectively, the space is usable year-round with the help of more than a dozen heat lamps, a couple fire pits and an overhead heating system. Classic German foods (think pretzels, bratwurst) plus burgers are available at a walk-up counter, as is a hefty beer menu that includes everything from traditional German beers to craft specialties.

Frankford Hall offers both indoor and outdoor seating, and keeps guest mighty cozy with multiple heat lamps and fire pits. (Photo courtesy Frankford Hall)

SUNDAY RIVER, MAINE (SUPERBOWL WEEKEND)
FEBRUARY 5-8, 2016

This is a 3-day ski trip during HIGH SEASON that includes lodging at the Snow Cap Inn (within walking distance to the lifts, but there are free shuttles to the lifts), continental breakfast, and a 3-day lift ticket.

The resort features 2,340 feet of vertical, 135 trails, 15 lifts, 870 skiable acres spanning 3 miles- and 92% snowmaking. There are trails for all levels. If you "think" you're an expert, try White Heat, Shockwave or Chutzpah; if you're into cruising, there's Lollapoluzza, T2, or Sunday Punch. If you're into easier trails, there's Cowardly Lion and the misleadingly-named Cyclone (really only a breeze). There are restaurants at all the bases as well as on the mountain. In addition, we're throwing a Fall Line super bowl party.

We will be staying at the Snow Cap Inn, a cozy, rustic inn about a nine minute walk from the White Cap base area. Free shuttles to the lifts are available as well. The inn features queen size beds, complimentary wi-fi, an outdoor hot tub, and ski lockers. Nearby bars and restaurants abound. Want a decadent breakfast? The Shipyard Brew Haus in the White Cap Lodge (open for brunch on weekends with $4 Bloodies).

The trip includes round trip motor coach from Mt. Laurel to Sunday River with beer, wine, and soda included, 3 nights lodging at The Snow Cap (double occupancy), and 3-day lift ticket.

Trip Price: $599 pp

Danzeisen & Quigley

Tuesday, November 17, 2015

Come on out to our November 17th, 2015 Mixer Meeting and see what is hot in fashion for this upcoming ski season. Gretchen Quigley of Danzeisen & Quigley has agreed to put on a fashion show for us one last time! I say that because Gretchen will be retiring after this ski season. Many of you have interacted with Gretchen and D&Q over the years so show up to wish her well in the next chapter of her life. As most of you know earlier this year Bill Quigley retired. Let's make this a great lasting impression for Gretchen of Fall Line Ski Club!

Also at the meeting check out the new Fall Line wear.
