WEEKEND OF OCTOBER 23-25

CAMPING & HIKING AT BLUE ROCKS FAMILY CAMPGROUND

We, (Mike and Laura Wirtshafter) invite everyone who would like to hike and camp for the weekend to please join us on this exciting adventure! We will be setting up our tent on Site 155. The full moon is on the 27th so we will have some amazing natural light at night.

The weekend itinerary is listed below. If you're not into camping, why not drive up for the day and join us on the hike? The fee for entering the campground and hiking is $4.00 per person. You can park your car in the campground parking lot for the day.

October is prime "Leaf Peeping Time At Its Best" so cottages, cabins and sites will book quickly. Don't miss out on this exceptional weekend – reserve your spot cottage or cabin sooner than later. For complete pricing and all other information go to the campground's website at <http://www.bluerockscampground.com>.

Blue Rocks is a rustic fun-filled environment for everyone. Blue Rocks consists of 125 acres of oaks and pines with mountain streams flowing freely throughout the park. You'll find their awe-inspiring Blue Rocks glacier deposit to be astonishing. The formation occurred during the last ice age and has been dated to be as old as 350 million years. The formation covers 15 acres and is said to have a stream that still runs beneath the field.

Although Blue Rocks caters to hikers and tenters, they also offer a wide choice of tent and RV sites in both open and wooded settings. For those looking for a compromise between a tent and an RV they do offer basic camping cabins for rent.

If you don't want to take the long hike, they have plenty of trails throughout the campground. Fishing is available at their pond. Or just relax and do your own thing. They also have a mini restaurant on location that is good if you choose not to cook.

Itinerary for the weekend:

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Warm Greetings To All,

Fall has finally arrived and I hope you all can take some time and enjoy the beauty of the season. Before you know it we will be going skiing again! This is a great time to dust off your equipment and get your skis adjusted and waxed so you are ready to hit the slopes when the snow arrives. As of now all of our trips have now opened and they are all off to a great start. There is still plenty of time to join in on one of the trips if something is spiking your interest. Truly there is something for everyone!

I just wanted to mention about the Camping & Hiking at Blue Rocks Family Campground hosted by Mike and Laura Wirtshafter. This will take place the weekend of 10/23 through 10/25. What a fantastic way to spend a weekend during the Fall season. Camp, hike, enjoy a beautiful moon, hang out with friends, go fishing or do nothing at all and just relax. Everyone will talk about you, though. Think about it, but don't wait too long as the sites book up quickly.

Hope to see you all soon,

Chris

6:00 PM – 11:00 PM

Located in Historic Mill Race Village in Mount Holly, NJ, this FREE outdoor event is a one of a kind, on-your-own, opportunity for adults to dress up and be whoever and whatever they want!

Surrender yourself to the atmosphere while all around you performances blend with the patrons as the night progresses. A diverse collection of music, art and revels await those who have the inclination and imagination to take part.

Costumes are encouraged. Be elaborate, be imaginative and be different. More than witches are welcome. Delve deep into the genres of Fantasy, Medieval, Renaissance, Victorian, Steampunk, Pirate, Goblin, Gothic, Horror, Carnival, Celtic and Faerie lore.

Frankford Hall

Fishtown, 1210 Frankford Avenue. Located in the heart of Fishtown, Frankford Hall is probably the most authentic-feeling beer garden in town, with indoor and outdoor seating for more than 400, multiple bars, an abundance of picnic tables, and games ranging from Jenga to ping pong. Effectively, the space is usable year-round with the help of more than a dozen heat lamps, a couple fire pits and an overhead heating system. Classic German foods (think pretzels, bratwurst) plus burgers are available at a walk-up counter, as is a hefty beer menu that includes everything from traditional German beers to craft specialties.

Frankford Hall offers both indoor and outdoor seating, and keeps guest mighty cozy with multiple heat lamps and fire pits. (Photo courtesy Frankford Hall)
